Thirteen made homeless after fire destroys house near Goodwood

Thirteen people, including seven adults and six children, escaped with their lives early Saturday morning when fire destroyed their home on Hwy. 1A, east of Goodwood. The blaze, of unknown origin, raged through the house despite efforts of brigade volunteers from Uxbridge and Stouffville. The loss has been estimated at $100,000.

Lake build-up supported

PRESTON LAKE — Subdividing the area on the north shore of Preston Lake would improve the lake environmentally, the Ontario Municipal Board (OMB) was told on Monday as the hearing concerning the proposed subdivision began.

Town Planner Michael Saunders told the two-man board that "planned development will help control the environmental impact (of construction)."

He said Ministries of the Environment and Natural Resources agree that "the proposed development will help to up-grade the lake."

Planning Consultant Peter Walker told the hearing that by building a dam to prevent run off, the water in the "kettle lake" (a lake with no contributory rivers) would be cleaner. The subdivision plans include such a dam. "This (dam) would filter the water," Walker said.

A trailer park situated at the north-west corner of the 53-acre lake has 214 lots. The proposed subdivision would have 50 to 59 single family homes. This would reduce the number of people using the lake which, Mr. Saunders said, would reduce the amount of pollution in the lake.

Mr Saunders also pointed out that permanent residents would tend to care for their property more than those who rent a spot for a week end.

Other expert witnesses are expected to testify and the public will be given an opportunity to speak Thursday (to-morrow) as the hearing continues.
