

Winter carnival a success: chairman

By RON HINCHLIFFE

CLAREMONT — This year's winter carnival was again a great success, according to organizing committee chairman Al Graham. Elsewhere in The Tribune (page A-6) you will find the names of winners in various carnival events. Next week I will go into a little more detail on the event once I've had a chance to digest it. I'd like to express my thanks to the true heroes of the 1986 Claremont Winter Carnival. The tireless workers are: Sheila Mulveney, Lynn Winterstein, Glenna Yoshida, Marion Peddie, Andrea Graham and Karen Marks. Without the efforts of these women, it's safe to say the festival wouldn't have taken place. Our hats are off to all of you.

The Claremont United Church Women will meet at the home of Bernice Ward on Monday, Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. Rosemarie Timms will be in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Timms reminds us of the pancake supper scheduled for the United Church on Tuesday, Feb. 11.

On March 5, the United Church Women will stage their annual Snowflake Coffee Party from 10 to 11:30 a.m. There will be a cake decorating demonstration and admission will be $2. Everyone is welcome. For more information, contact Mrs. Timms at 649-2431. Congratulations are in order to the Legion Ladies Auxiliary. This past weekend proved to be a huge success for the ladies in everything they chose to participate in. Not only did they win honors for most humorous float at the carnival, they walked away with first prize at Saturday's Zone 1 Legion bowling tournament at Bowmanville. Members of the winning team are: Marge Samarillo, Li MacGregor, Jean Bradshaw, Aggie Stewart, Bev Coppins, Aggie Ferguson and Rene Rennie.

For the second year, the Ladies Auxiliary held an open house at the Legion Hall in conjunction with the carnival. Members served refreshments to a standing room only crowd and should be thanked for a job well done. My final words this week are a reminder of the Community Shower being held for fire victims Jim and Lorrie Stiner at the Legion Hall Feb. 19 at 8 p.m. For more information please call Denise Norton at 649-2615.

Praise is high for Goodwood clubs

Goodwood and surrounding communities who donated to the victims of a Jan. 18 fire east of the hamlet. Contributing to the cause were the Goodwood and District Lions Club, Women's Institute and the United and Baptist church congregations. They all did a wonderful job. These groups, and the many individuals who gave so graciously and generously, are to be commended.

Sorry to report that Eldon Yake is a patient in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital after suffering a heart attack. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Doctor David Butters and family spent New Year's at the Goodwood home of his parents, Bill and Molly Butters. Dr. Butters recently completed his studies and was awarded a fellowship in the College of Surgeons. He's to begin a practice at Thunder Bay.

Euclere was well attended last Wednesday evening at Goodwood Community Centre. The winners were Gord McGougain, Gord Wilson and Mildred Thompson, Margaret Gall, Rachel Harper and Mary Anderson. Door prizes went to George Harper, Gord Wilson, Rachel Harper, Van Bell, Helen Blizzard, Pete Gall, Ed Skinner and many more.

Bingo will be played in the Community Centre tonight (Feb. 5) at 7:30 p.m.

Euclere is also scheduled for Mount Albert Hall Tuesday, Feb. 18, beginning at 8 p.m. Good prizes will be offered at this event sponsored by the local Horticultural Society.
