Home of the Week

Two stocked ponds on a 5.76-acre site highlight this home on the Bethesda Sideroad in Whitechurch-Stouffville. Custom landscaping is featured throughout the property and at the entrance is a wrought-iron security gates with intercom. The house has been custom built with a triple garage and numerous walkouts to the patio area. The home features central air conditioning. On the main floor is an immaculate family room with California Drift stone and a full wall of glass that enhances the view of the garden. It has a walk through to the games room (top). The living room/dining room has wall-to-wall windows overlooking the front pond and the kitchen has hardwood floors and custom cabinetry. The master bedroom includes an ensuite complete with jacuzzi. There is also a second bedroom plus two more in a new addition to the home reached from the main level. The home is listed by Family Trust and the agent is Patricia Zwaal. She can be reached at 640-2082, 234-5872 or 887-5808. The estate has an asking price of $550,000.
