

Weekender Real Estate

294-2200
640-2100

Weekender Home of the Week

This Victorian home built 98 years ago stands in the heart of old Markham at 21 Washington St. It has an asking price of $245,000. The 24-foot living room/dining room features 9' ceilings and hardwood floors, a bay window and an antique brick fireplace. The 16-foot main floor family room (at top) has two bay windows and an antique brick fireplace. The kitchen (bottom right) with pine wainscoting, has a doorway to a covered side porch and a main floor laundry room. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms. The upstairs washroom and hall share a skylight. The home is listed by Family Trust, Unionville and the agent is Murray Hale. He can be reached by calling 477-4049.

