Stouffville fashions in the spotlight

Diana McInerney (left) of Goodwood and Stouffville's Wilma Medley were part of a group of seven ladies participating in Friday's fashion show at Goodwood Community Centre. They modelled sweater designs from Chuck's Woolwinder, Stouffville, during a program sponsored by the Goodwood Christian Women's Club.

GOODWOOD—The United Church Men will host a pancake breakfast at the church Sunday, Feb. 23. A menu of flapjacks, bacon, sausage, juice, coffee and tea will be served from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. The cost is adults, $3; children, $2; and $10 for a family. Everyone's welcome to stay for the service afterwards.

Also on Sunday, Goodwood Brownies, Guides, Cubs and Beavers will participate in a Thinking Day at the United Church.

Minor ball registration will be held tomorrow (Feb. 20) between 5:30 and 7 p.m. at Goodwood Community Centre. Please sign-up now to guarantee your child or children will be able to play. For more information contact Ron or Ellen Martin at 640-3301.

The Bell family helped celebrate their parents' wedding anniversary Feb. 9. It's about 53 years for Gord and Maude Bell, a former Goodwood couple who now reside in Stouffville.

Members of the Couples Club were back at it Saturday night during a wildly successful dance at the Community Centre. Everyone had a good time without any rowdy behavior.

And the Goodwood Christian Women's Club held an excellent coffee meeting Friday morning. An assortment of sweaters were modelled courtesy of Chuck's Woolwinder, Stouffville. Pat Goring and Karen Boyer displayed their vocal talents while a guest speaker told her interesting life story.

Bingo will be played tonight (Feb. 19) in the Community Centre beginning at 7:30 p.m.

After the last successful euchre night in Goodwood, another is scheduled for the Centre on Wednesday, Feb. 26.

Back on Feb. 10, the Goodwood Potluckers enjoyed a dinner and an afternoon of bingo at Flossie Wagg's Stouffville home.

Rev. Craig Pitts of Stouffville Pentecostal Church hosted a group of 26 Goodwood senior citizens on Friday. They enjoyed a 'potlove' luncheon (in honor of Valentine's Day), followed by a variety of interesting activities. And everyone joined in a singsong to help life-long Stouffville resident Miss Louie Lloyd celebrate her 79th birthday.

Claremont United Church Women

Feature cake decorating

CLAREMONT — The United Church Women will hold a Snowflake Coffee Party Wednesday, March 5 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. The event includes a 10:30 a.m. cake decorating demonstration in the Sunday School Room of Claremont United Church.

Organizer Rosemarie Timms is also continuing her involvement with The Melody Makers of Markham. The Ladies Barbershop Chorus of Harmony Incorporated is now on the lookout for new members to sing four-part harmony.

The ability to read music is an asset but it's not essential, according to Mrs. Timms, who says there are vacancies in lead, tenor, bass and baritone.

The chorus is busy rehearsing for upcoming sing-outs and the area competition on the May 3 weekend.

"Anyone who loves to sing is most welcome to come join in our regular practices," the Claremont woman says.

Director Peggy Shackleton of Scarborough leads the group in practice Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in the gym of Markham's Robinson Public School.

The Melody Makers have new uniforms this year, meaning the old outfits (a total of 25 in two styles) are for sale at $3 each. Some white Spring hats are also available. For more information contact 294-5398 or 640-2876.
