

Cheque for $88,888.70

Good things in 3's for Lotto winner

STOUFFVILLE — Wayne and Sandra MacKillop, R.R. 3, Stouffville, are $88,888.70 richer thanks to the Lotto 649 mid-week draw, Feb. 19.

The couple have purchased two cars and intend to use the rest of the second place prize to buy a cottage.

"We're looking for a cottage for sale in the newspapers, but haven't found the one we want just yet." Wayne and Sandra haven't decided on an exact location either.

Wayne, a 37-year-old printer at Alcan Canada, has been playing the lottery with the same numbers about two years. A year ago they won $2,400 from Lotto 649 and a year earlier, $3,400 from Lotto. As well, they've matched four numbers on numerous occasions, the Lottery Corporation reported.

"It doesn't take long to spend," Mrs. MacKillop said, "but it's nice to have—to spend."

Enough for two cars, a cottage

Wayne MacKillop of R.R. 3, Stouffville, holds a cheque in the amount of $88,888.70, his latest winnings from Lotto 649. He's come up a winner on two previous occasions, proving good things come in three's. Wayne and Sandra have purchased two cars and plan to add a cottage to their personal possessions.
