

Brought joy to Seniors

Stouffville Brownies brought smiles to the faces of Whitchurch-Stouffville Seniors, Feb. 12, when they delivered dozens of Valentines to Homes in town. The project was organized by Diane Peak. Here, six-year-old Erin Ticknor of Lori Avenue, Stouffville, presents a card to Harold Martin, Parkview Home. ---Jim Thomas

Percy and Daisy Brown

Soon---a very special day

For Percy and Daisy Brown of Minden and formerly of Stouffville, Friday, March 7 is a very special day--their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Prior to moving to Minden seven years ago, Mr and Mrs Brown resided in the Stouffville area.

While here, Percy was employed by the late Ross Winterstein and later, served on the staff of Consolidated Sand and Gravel. At Minden, he owned and operated Brown's Auto Wrecking and Towing, assisted by his son.

Mr and Mrs Brown have never lost their love for Stouffville. They visit their many friends and family relatives here as often as possible.

They are proud of their two sons and five daughters--Gary of Ajax and Dan of Stouffville; Dorothy (Mrs Jack King), Oshawa; Betty (Mrs Frank Hoey), Stouffville; Marlene (Mrs Maurice Marshman), Brighton; Erma (Mrs Herb Harvie), Dunville; Wanda (Mrs Peter Stover), Stouffville; 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Supports deer hunt

Dear Editor: I'm not about to argue the fact deer are beautiful animals.

So also are foxes, and wolves, and raccoons, and rabbits.

Unfortunately, their numbers sometimes increase to an extent they become a nuisance, even a hazard.

When this happens, measures must be taken to thin them out. This is what the Ministry of Natural Resources plans on doing in the north part of Uxbridge Township.

Ministry officials are specialists in their field. If they say an over-abundance of deer presently exist, I'll agree.

Sincerely,
Gordon Bond,
R.R. 2, Uxbridge.
