

Whitchurch Highlands sweeps Legion contest

Students at Whitchurch Highlands Public School dominated several categories in the 1985-86 Remembrance Day Literary and Poster competition, sponsored by Stouffville branch 459 of the Royal Canadian Legion. Among the school's top entrants are (from left): Shawna McGregor and Elisa Kuusela, first and second respectively in the poster section for Grades 7 to 9; and Shane Derrick, poster winner for Grades 4 to 6. —Chris Shanahan

Students honored for literary submissions

Top literary submissions, both essays and poems, were judged in a Stouffville Legion contest run in conjunction with Remembrance Day. Some of those receiving certificates at Monday's award ceremony are (from left): Jeffrey Carney of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, first place in the essay class for Grades 9 to 13; Jeff Cowley of Orchard Park Public School, top essay in Grades 7 to 9; Jenny Smart and Christina Bannerman, both of Whitchurch Highlands Public School, first and second respectively for best essays in Grades 4 to 6; Rae McFadden, chairman of the Legion's youth education committee, is pictured at right.
