Couples Club will meet

By ELSIE BOLAND
GOODWOOD — The Couples Club will hold a general meeting at Goodwood Community Centre on Tuesday, March 11. Members are invited to the session beginning at 8 p.m.
 The pancake breakfast was a huge success Saturday at Goodwood United Church. We can thank the men of the church for undertaking the job and for doing it so well. This is a yearly task for them and, of course, the ladies enjoy. Here's hoping that next year will be better than ever.
 There was a large congregation at the United Church Sunday, with several groups of children taking part. Rev. Edith Ann McManiman delivered an excellent sermon for the young people as well as for the adults. The choir was small, but the six people who did sing did a fine job. Kees Koster is on the sick list and he wasn't able to tell his usual story to the children. He was also missed in the choir.
 The Lions-sponsored toboggan party was enjoyed by many Goodwood-area residents back on Feb. 15. Youngsters slid down the hill and then were brought back to the top on snowmobiles. Donuts and hot chocolate were distributed afterwards. The Lions are to be congratulated for organizing this fun activity.

Euchre will be played tonight (Feb. 26) at 8 p.m. in the Community Centre.
 Gord Powell, Conc. 4, Uxbridge Twp., is now holidaying in the sunny south.
 Goodwood's senior citizen club met last Tuesday at the Centre, but there was a small turnout because of the heavy fog that evening. Those who were there had a good time socializing and playing euchre. A mystery prize, donated by Van Bell, went to Rita Pratt. Other door prize winners were: Tom Ogden, Isabelle Home, Elsie Boland, Bill Butters, Art Pratt, Ken Home, Hazel McLaughlin, Margaret Harris and May Shier. Isabelle Home, Esther Archer and Art Pratt won the euchre game.
 The seniors club will enjoy a potluck luncheon March 4 at 12 noon. It'll be held at the Community Centre.
 Sorry to hear Eldon Yake has been moved to Scarborough Centenary Hospital from Uxbridge Cottage Hospital. He is scheduled for heart surgery today at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.
 Members of the Goodwood U.C.W. assemble Monday, March 3 at Mary Fierheller's residence. All ladies are welcome to this meeting, which begins at 1 p.m.

Enjoys convention

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — Helen Hockley, Uxbridge's 1985-86 Fair Queen, had an enjoyable time while attending the recent Ontario Fairs Convention at Toronto's Royal York Hotel. There were Queens representing a total of 114 provincial fairs.
 Saturday's weather was fine for the Baptist Sunday School picnic. Tobogganing was enjoyed on the neighboring hills and appetites were keen for the hot picnic supper provided at the church later in the afternoon. Then it was on to Victory Savary's rink for the skating crowd. It was a fun-filled afternoon for all participants.
 Eldon Yake is scheduled for heart surgery on Wednesday at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. The get well wishes from his many friends are much appreciated.
 Scheduled for a medical appointment, Edna Yake suffered a worsening condition on Sunday, Feb. 9. She was taken by ambulance to Princess Margaret Hospital where she is undergoing treatment. In her absence, Wellington Yake is staying at Stouffville's Parkview Home. The couple's friends are both wishing them a sense of peace during these trying days.

 Mrs. Marjorie Ball has moved from the Newmarket Nursing home to Green Gables at Bloomington. She's happy to be so much nearer her family and friends.
 Pastor Gary Manzo has returned from Haiti where he was visiting some of Emmanuel International's missionaries. He has resumed his post at Goodwood Baptist Church. Ralph Berry ably took Rev. Manzo's place during his absence. One of Mr. Berry's sermons prompted these words:
 No fear of God? The Holy One when He has said "Every knee shall bow" sometime. In sorrow? Why not now in love? No fear of God? And yet he came to give His life in pain and shame; yet some profane His Holy Name. No fear of God? Some joke of death, while He supplies our every breath. Fear none BUT God, the bible saith.
