Students become doctors, postmen for a day

Grade 2, 3 and 4 students at Summitview Public School dressed up as everything from doctors to construction laborers Friday during Occupation Day. Some of those participating in a school project studying careers within the community, are (from left): Jaimie VanderHenne, Peter Watson, Lesley Osborne, Bradley Hackert (seated) and Todd Gilham. —Chris Shanahan

Shovel those sidewalks!

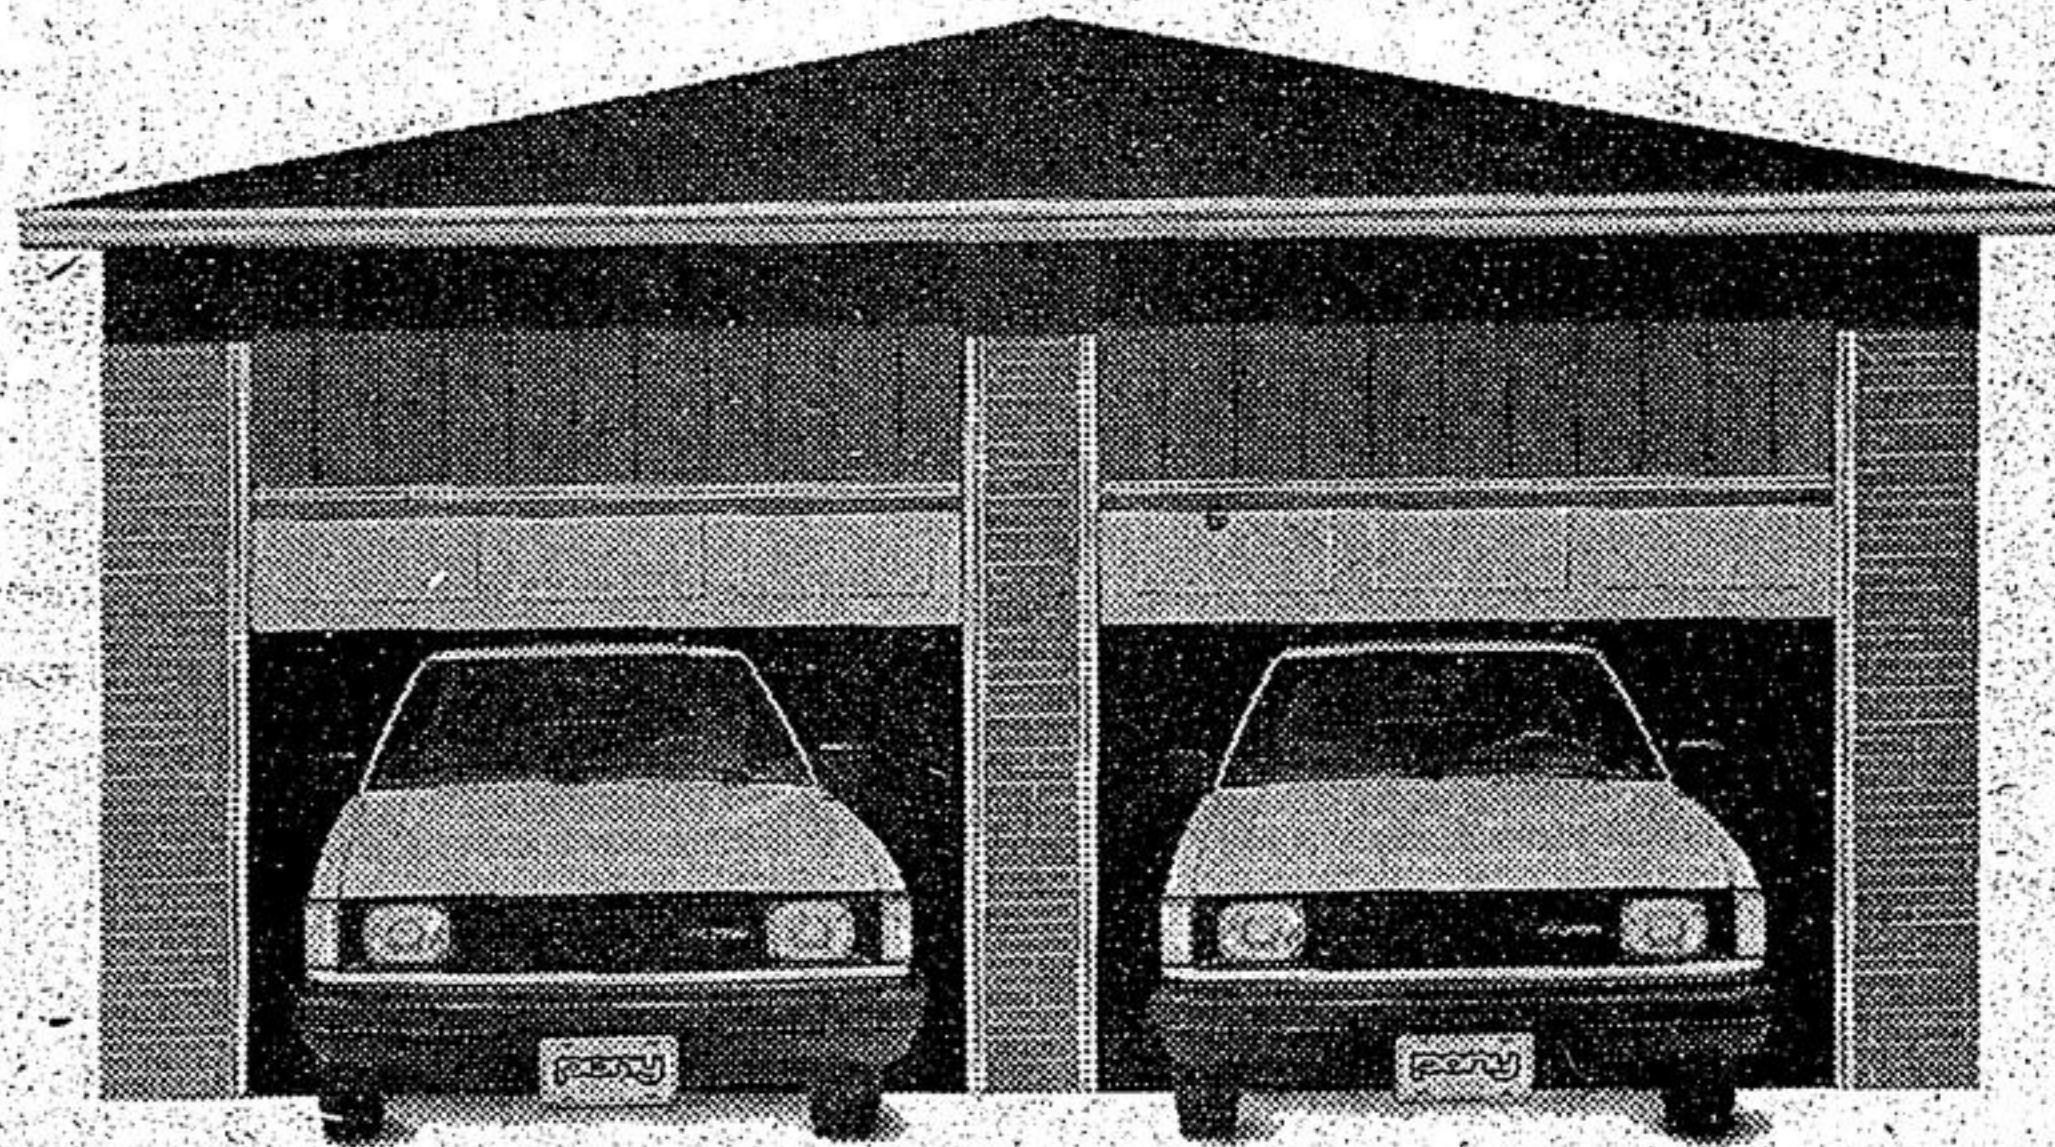

To The Editor:
Does the Town of Whitechurch-Stouffville have a by-law enforcement officer? If so, it is about time he or she gets off its butt and ensures that the sidewalks are shovelled. Our sidewalks—in the residential as well as Main Street—are treacherous to say the least.

The walks in front of most of the churches on Main Street and the walk adjacent to the railway tracks are a disgrace. I have seen several citizens slip on the ice.

Let's move it, or should I say remove it before the spring thaw. And don't have to be reminded next year again.

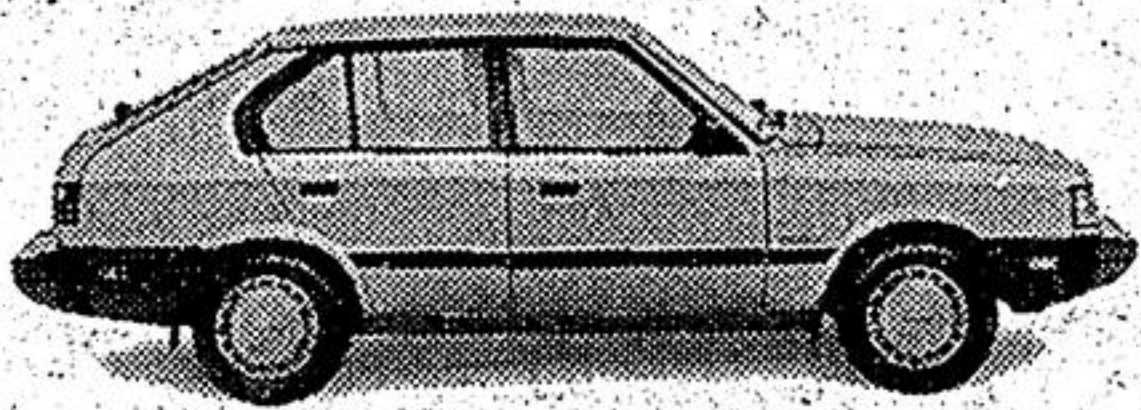

Yours truly,
Wm. S. Spence

Stouffville

No wonder the insurance companies have increased the liability rates.

Hyundai Pony.
The two-for-one car.

There's more to Pony than a great price. But the price is terrific. You can buy two Ponys for the price of one full-sized car. So two of you can enjoy the reliable performance that has made Pony the most popular car in its class. Two of you can have all those standard features that cost extra on many other cars. Pony GLS, for example, comes with dual outside mirrors, 5 Michelin all-season radials, AM-FM cassette with four speakers and a passenger's vanity mirror. All standard. Come in soon and test drive a Pony or two.
