Stouffville skaters capture medals

The Stouffville Figure Skating Club put in its best performance in years at the Central Ontario Sectional Inter-Club competition last weekend. Melissa Gornik and Lee-Anna Hamilton (upper left) won a bronze medal in the Junior Bronze Similar Pairs class. The North Bay Invitational also took place last weekend. Susan Anderson (middle) clinched first overall in pre-juvenile, Nicole Vautier (top right) finished 12th overall in juvenile, and Stephanie Barclay placed first in pre-novice.

Stouffville pool falling apart

STOUFFVILLE — Councillor Wilf Morley has painted a grim picture of Stouffville's rundown Community Pool. Councillor Morley told a recent meeting that repairs, costing upwards of $20,000, would have to be done soon or the facility wouldn't open on time this summer. He said the marble tiles need replacing, and the pipes are also in a decayed state. The pool is 27 years old. Councillor Jim Sanders wondered why the matter hadn't been brought to Council's attention long ago. Councillor Ron Robb called for a total repair figure so the pool's future could be assessed. While members were noticeably concerned, Cathy Richardson of the Parks and Recreation Department said the pool can open for the season "but it's in no great shape." "There have been no major repairs done since it was installed," she stated, "it's been a case of patch it up and cover it up with paint."

Similar problems were experienced last year, Cathy explained. She said the public wasn't allowed to use the facility until after lessons had started. "If the work's put off until next year, costs will be higher still," she concluded.

Novices blow out Pickering Jets

The Neil Patrick Novice Clippers routed the Pickering Jets 6-1 in the OMAA semifinal opener Friday night. If game one is any indication, Stouffville's youngest representative squad could wrap up the best of three series early this week.

Clipper netminder Greg Sanford was outstanding between the pipes. He confronted a number of Pickering shooters who managed to penetrate the Clipper defence. Only one adversary beat him late in the game to spoil his shutout. Stouffville took an early first period lead when Geoff Smith slipped home two goals. He clinched the hat trick in the second frame after captain Phil Pridham fed him a sharp pass. Smith's stick was still smoking when he collected two more goals in the third period. Assists went to Brian Coughlan and Roger McMann. Ryan Jefferson also put one home on a set up from Sian Morrison and McMann. The Clippers compete in a Colingwood tourney this weekend. The defending consolation champions hope to capture the top crown this time around.

Beat the Champ starts

Seventy-two bowlers from the Monday night men's league in Stouffville have entered the second annual Beat The Champ competition. The top 48 bowlers, who most successfully beat their personal average, advance to the next round. That number is reduced to 24, 12, and finally the top six men bowl-off on Sunday, April 6 (10 a.m.) for cash prizes. The finalists bowl one game only.
