Paige Maddock (left), Blair Road and Natalie Wood, Stouffer Street South, Stouffville, share the same carrier route, but do different jobs. Paige delivers The Tribune and mid-week flyers. Natalie handles The Weekender and delivers 52 subscribers. Natalie calls at 52 homes. — Jim Thomas

Tribune-Weekender carriers Share same route

By JIM THOMAS
STOUFFVILLE — Eleven-year-old Natalie Wood and ten-year-old Paige Maddock, deliver newspapers on the same route but not in competition.
For Natalie and Paige it's "togetherness" all the way. Natalie has 38 Tribune subscribers. Paige delivers 52 Weekenders and flyers.
They service customers on Stouffer Street South, Blair Road and Dorman Drive.
"The cold's the worst," says Natalie. "I don't mind the rain."
What about dogs? She was asked.
"We know them all," she replied.
Both girls have their own bank accounts. Paige is saving to attend Girl Guide Camp near Halliburton this summer. Natalie is looking forward to a Quebec trip with her Grade 7 classmates this spring.

Natalie and Paige enjoy their jobs. Occasionally Brooke, Paige's five-year-old sister, helps out. Natalie has one brother, Michael.
Paige is a Grade 5 student at King City Public School. Natalie is in Grade 6 at Summitview.
In addition to delivering newspapers and flyers, these always-smiling girls are busy doing other things as well. Natalie is a model. She also takes dance lessons, ballet and jazz. Paige studies singing and tap. She'll be a participant in the Lions-sponsored Music Festival at Newmarket next month. Both are Girl Guides.
Natalie is the daughter of Wm. and Gloria Wood, Stouffer Street South. Paige is the daughter of Darryl and Arlene Maddock, Blair Road.
