Uxbridge Girl Guide leaving on Austrian junket

A 15-year-old Uxbridge resident is one of four Girl Guides chosen to represent Canada this summer at an international camp in Austria.

Julie Henderson of Second Avenue has successfully applied for a three-week trek that'll include stops in Vienna and Munich, Germany.

A trip highlight will undoubtedly be Quipo '86. The Austrian camp will bring together 3,000 Guides and Boy Scouts from across the world Aug. 5 to 14.

Julie's agenda also includes time for some sightseeing. She's scheduled to depart Uxbridge on July 31 and return Aug. 22.

The Grade 10 student at Uxbridge Secondary School has been involved in the Guiding movement for nine years. She is a member of Uxbridge Rangers and serves as a junior Brownie leader.

Julie visited England and Scotland two years ago as part of a Guide exchange, then hosted a partner from overseas last summer.

The Canada Cord recipient says she's looking forward to her next adventure as a travelling ambassador for the Girl Guides of Canada.
