

Two talented women spotlight performance of Chamber Players

Two talented women will be spotlighted Tuesday at a performance of the Chamber Players of Toronto at the Markham Theatre. Agnes Grossmann conducts the 15-member string orchestra which will feature guest harpist Erica Goodman.

Ms. Grossmann is the only female conductor in Canada and in her native Austria.

Ms. Goodman has performed solo and with many orchestras in Canada, the United States and Europe. She has accompanied Henry Mancini, Johnny Mathis and Tony Bennett, to name a few.

The Toronto-born musician has recorded several records, most recently with flutist Robert Aitken for the Swedish label BIS. Her latest won the Grand Prix du Disque-Canada award for the best recording on a foreign label.

Tickets are available through the box office and range in price from $13.50 to $17.50. The performance begins at 8 p.m.

Uxbridge choral evening

Zephyr musician Tom Baker will direct Uxbridge Chamber Choir tonight (March 22) in a presentation of My Spirit Sang All Day.

The Music Hall concert features guest soloist Angelique Leydier and accompanist Anne Baker. It begins at 8 p.m.

An admission of $5 includes the chance to win a door prize of dinner for two at Uxbridge's Hobby Horse Arms.

Tickets are available at Yellow Brick Road, 6 Brock Street West.
