

On loan from Australia

Twenty-three-year-old Kelly MacKay is a visitor in Stouffville from Port Hedland, Australia. She's staying, (perhaps permanently), with her grandfather, Reg MacKay, Maytree Avenue.

Kelly served with the Port Hedland Police Department before resigning to come to Canada. — Jim Thomas

STOUFFVILLE — Port Hedland's loss, Stouffville's gain — maybe.

Pretty 23-year-old Kelly MacKay is on loan from Australia and currently residing at the home of her grandfather, Reg MacKay, 85 Maytree Avenue.

Kelly's stay could be permanent. "I'll remain for a year, then see what happens," she says.

Kelly is actually a native of Canada. She was born in Castle Gar, British Columbia. Her parents, Barry and Betty MacKay, live in Port Hedland. She has one sister and one brother.

Before packing her bags and heading for Stouffville, Kelly served on the staff of the Port Hedland Police Department. The Force presented her with a beautiful engraved plaque when she left.

Kelly says Canada's a nice change, but "I don't like the cold." The weather's bound to improve, her grandfather insists.

Kelly didn't come here alone. She was accompanied by a school teacher friend, Sue Williams, currently visiting out West.

Personable Kelly says she'll definitely return to Australia in three years in order to retain her citizenship, but "I hope to come back." Stouffville hopes so too.
