

Arts community bands together for Uxbridge celebration

Uxbridge Township will host an inaugural Celebration of the Arts Aug. 22 to 24. Helping to promote the event at a recent media night are artistic directors, from left: Tom Baker (music), Christopher Chapman (cinema), Roz Pritchard (theatre) and John Richmond (visual arts). They're admiring Mr. Chapman's Academy Award, won by the area film-maker for his Expo '67 production, A Place To Stand.

Late Jean Reesor
Senior's death deeply saddens many friends in Goodwood

By ELSIE BOLAND

GOODWOOD — The community was saddened to hear of the passing of Jean Reesor this past week. The Stouffville resident was well known at seniors' meetings and euchres. Mrs. Reesor spent her childhood in Claremont.

On March 19, members of Goodwood W.I. enjoyed a luncheon and play, 'Barefoot in the Park', at Stouffville's Deer Park Inn.

Goodwood's potluckers dined at Flossie Wagg's house on Monday, March 17. Those in attendance helped celebrate Pauline Noble's birthday and then played bingo.

Goodwood Christian Women's Club staged a successful coffee meeting at the community centre on Friday morning. A great array of bridal clothes were displayed as well as a variety of wedding apparel. Soloist Esther Mangione of Stouffville sang two selections, followed by a speaker from Cambridge, Lorna Dowdy, and her 'Shower of Blessings'. The hall was filled for this lovely program.

Gord Bell is still in hospital undergoing more tests. He has recently experienced a low blood count.

Sylvia and Phil Ribbie have arrived home after a six-week holiday in New Zealand. Glad to have you back!

On Good Friday (March 28), the choir at Goodwood United church will present a cantata beginning 7:30 p.m. After the concert, food and refreshments will be served. Everyone's invited to visit the church and support the choir. No tickets are required, just fill the seats!

Easter Sunday will be Communion Day at the United Church.

Stan and Judy Todd and family escaped an early-morning fire at their Conc. 3 home Thursday. Their woodframe house was destroyed by raging flames, which were fuelled by high winds.

A Maple Syrup Supper will be held at the community centre on Thursday, April 3. It begins at 5 p.m. and continues until all are served. Cost of the hot-ham meal is $7 for adults and $3 for children.

Bingo was played at the centre on March 19. Tonight (March 26) it's the euchre players' turn as they get going at 8 p.m.

Senior citizens also played euchre during their day at the centre on March 18. The winners were George Lott, Hazel McLaughlan and Elva Symes. Door prizes went to George Archer, Frank Jenkinson, Louie Hammond, Elva Symes, Eva Evans, Elsie Boland, Jean Bell, Rita Parratt, Van Bell, Tom Ogden, Esther Smith and Art Parratt.
