

Barbershoppers singing to a Markville tune

One of the old-fashioned styles of singing will be heard in Markham next month as a local barbershop singing society chapter celebrates Harmony Month.

Ross Sutherland of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA), Markham chapter, will bring harmonic melodies to Markville Shopping Centre April 11.

Included in the sing-along will be a four-part harmony of Happy Birthday.

Woman robs Markham's Canada Trust

York Regional Police are looking for female suspect in connection with a robbery at Canada Trust in Markham last Saturday.

According to police, a woman entered the Hwy 7 trust company at 7:20 p.m. on March 15 and gave a note to a teller demanding cash and advising that she had a gun. The woman was given an undisclosed amount of money and fled the scene on foot.

to the mid-1800s and Harmony Month spotlights the old-fashioned fun that surrounds harmony singing. This year signifies the 48th anniversary of SPEBSQSA.

"Men of all ages and interests are invited to learn more about our chapter and join in some fellowship and singing," Mr. Sutherland said. "You don't have to be an expert singer or even know how to read music. You just have to enjoy the fun that comes from singing."

The Markham chapter will be competing in Hamilton before its engagement at Markville Shopping Centre on April 11.
