

Claremont United Church Honor organizations

CLAREMONT — A variety of community organizations will be recognized during a special service at Claremont United Church on Sunday, April 13.

The program, based on the theme "building a caring community," begins at 11:15 a.m. and is to be followed by a complimentary luncheon.

Invited to take part are representatives from the Auberge Shelter; Co-ordinating Committee; Scouts and Guides; Lion and Lioness clubs; Volunteer Fire Department; Claremont Rescue Group; Co-operative Nursery School; Women's Institute; Royal Canadian Legion, branch 483, and Legion Ladies Auxiliary; Claremont and District Community Association; and Claremont Recreation Committee.

For more information contact Rev. Doug Varey at 649-2400.

Celebrate 80th birthdays

Long-time Claremont residents Rowena and Frank Barclay both celebrate 80th birthdays this week. On Saturday, family members gathered to congratulate the octogenarian couple and help them eat a massive cake made specially for the occasion. Frank officially marks his 80th year today (April 9) while Rowena's birthday is tomorrow. The Barclays now reside at R.R. 1, Brooklin.

Christian coffee meeting

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — Members of the Goodwood Christian Women's Club invite residents to a morning coffee meeting at the Community Centre on Friday, April 11. Grace Coles will bring a message entitled "Joy of Spring" while Betty Gibney and Barbara Brown provide the musical entertainment. The program, called "Step into Spring," begins at 9:30 a.m. A gracious welcome is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Baldwin, T.J. and Loretta, of Virginia Beach visited the Fourth Line on Sunday and enjoyed supper with Rueben May and family.

Mrs. Reginald Walker, a patient at Port Perry hospital for the past three weeks; has been moved to Eldercare Manor in Stouffville. Her friends will be sorry to learn there has been little improvement in her condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Drake of Kitchener enjoyed a visit with Beth's parents, Arnold and Betty May, on Sunday. Along with their new son, Craig, they attended the morning worship service.

John Rennie of Uxbridge will be guest speaker at Goodwood Baptist Church next Sunday, April 13. Bruce Kearney has had an enforced rest in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital after suffering chest pains for several days. He has been diagnosed to have a heart problem. It's expected he'll be released this week.

Sorry to report the passing of Mrs. Wellington (Edna) Yake on Sunday evening. She had been a patient in a Toronto hospital for several weeks after recently suffering extreme fatigue. Wellington and Edna farmed a piece of land for many years at the junction of Durham Region Road 21 and the Fourth Line. Their parcel was purchased by Revenue Properties in the late 1960s.
