Stouffville club toasts Founder

STOUFFVILLE — Beta Sigma Phi members in Stouffville and around the world are gathering April 30 to celebrate "Founders Day"—a traditional celebration that will, honor the 55-year history of the world's largest women's social, service and cultural organization.

York Region's celebration will be held at the Bayview Golf and Country Club. Many members from the two Stouffville chapters are expected. Those attending will be treated to cocktails, dinner and a guest speaker.

Stouffville's Beta Sigma Phi began in 1972. It has grown to two chapters (Eta Lambda and Xi Epsilon XI), with 33 members.

Both chapters work hard to achieve the social, service and cultural requirements expected of them.

The local groups regularly meet together and with other chapters in order to develop strong friendly bonds.

The Stouffville Recreation Centre, the Deacon Al Fund, the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library and many other local projects, have received donations as part of the service program. As well, both chapters participate in selling roses for the Heart Fund, host a birthday party at Green Gables and help with community care programs. On the regional level they've donated to Sick Children's Hospital, Yellow Brick House, Markham Stouffville Hospital and the Distress Centre in Richmond Hill.
