Missionary to speak at Alliance Church

Although the invasion by the Communists into South East Asia is long past, refugees from that area of the world are scattered to the four corners of the earth living in the horror of the past.

Canadian missionary, Ruth Patterson, presently serving with the Christian and Missionary Alliance in France, seeks to reach out and touch their lives for Christ.

Miss Patterson will be speaking at the annual Missionary Conference of Unionville Alliance

Church on Saturday, April 12 at 8:30 a.m. at an Adult Breakfast located at Cullen Country Barns, Milliken.

On Sunday, April 13 she will speak at the 11 a.m. church service at Unionville Public School, Kennedy Rd., Unionville and at the 6:30 p.m. evening service of the Unionville Alliance Church meeting at St. Andrew's United Church, Main St., Markham. All are invited to attend.

A native of Toronto, Miss Patterson graduated from Nyack Missionary College in 1951 and received her nursing education in Montreal.

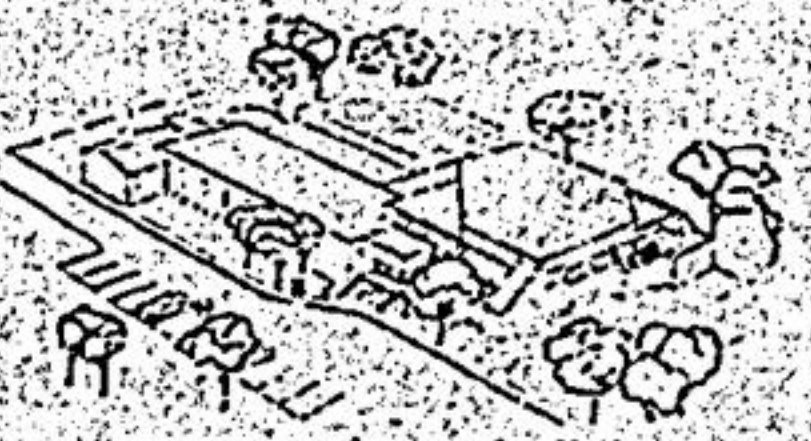

Her first assignment with the Christian & Missionary Alliance was in Africa where she served for over 20 years ministering to the physical and spiritual needs of people. Then she was appointed to Asia-Cambodia and Thailand where she was involved in medical, teaching and refugee ministries.

For the past eight years, Ruth has been in France pouring out her life to the Asian refugees and also involving herself with French people in need of Christ.

The Christian and Missionary Alliance is an evangelical denomination serving in 51 countries around the world with an overseas staff of 1,099.

Lutherans
ARE SPIRIT-FILLED

Or to say it another way the Spirit fills us up — with faith. Luther said, "I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Christ my Lord or come to Him. But the Holy Spirit calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies me..."

Faith itself is the Spirit's gift. The Spirit itself is God's gift. The Bible suggests the Spirit is like the wind; you cannot see it, but you can see its effects; like leaves rustling on a tree. Or lives wrestling with a concern. Or a heart changed by love.
