Markham girls in Ontario meet

By FRANCIS KING and KELLY CONNELLY

Nine Markham Gymnastic Club members from Markham, Unionville, Milliken and Stouffville will tackle the best from Ontario at next month's provincial championships in Ottawa.

Eight of them earned the honor at the third and final qualifying meet last weekend in Oshawa.

Stouffville sisters Tracy and Dina Emery compare the provincials to a blind date. The athletes don't know who they'll compete against, but expect the competition to be tough.

Gymnast Kristen Rasmussen, 14, is no stranger to the provincial meet. Although this will be the Markham girl's third visit to the Ontario finals, she too has no idea who her division rivals will be.

"Every year the other regions enter new kids in the competition. They're always different in ability," she said. "I've learned not to expect too much (from myself). I'll just work hard and hope I have a good day."

Sounds like the words of a seasoned provincial veteran. However, 15-year-old Tracy Emery, is just as pragmatic. "I'll just try my best and try not to get too upset if I don't do well," she remarked.

At the qualifier, Tracy scored 8.85 (out of 10) on the vault, 8.73 on bars, 6.65 on beam, and 8.85 on her greatest strength — the floor routine — to finish seventh overall.

Kristen clinched second spot with a 9.05, 8.53, 6.65 and 8.85 for a 34.98 score on the same routines. Both teens compete in the junior B class.

Tracy's younger sister, Dina, 14, will compete exclusively on trampoline.

In the Argo A section, Milliken's Cheryl Hoofat qualified with 35.5 points — good for second overall. She tallied up 9.0 on the vault and beam, 8.73 on the bars and 8.8 on the floor.

3rd trip to provincials

Markham's Danielle Leier gained an alternate spot on the provincial team with a seventh-place finish. She collected 8.8 on the vault, 8.5 on the bars, 8.4 on the beam and 9.05 on the floor.

Junior A competitors Jocelyn Cowsls and Kim Farwell were second and fourth respectively, both finishes good enough to qualify.

Cowsls had 8.5 on the vault, 8.6 on the bars, 8.9 on the beam and 8.7 on the floor. Farwell had 8.9, 8.1, 8.6 and 8.7 in the same routines.

Markham's Michelle Begay won the Tyro B division to qualify, with 8.8, 8.7, 8.5 and 8.6 scores. Markham's Christine Steer finished eighth in Junior B to earn a spot. She earned scores of 8.9, 8.0, 7.2 and 8.7.

Other club members in the meet included Simone Senior, Karen Minos, Amy Smirnov, Christine Dory, Susan Douglas, Nadine Mantha, Jodi Tuck, Jeanette Borre, Laurie Strano, Jody Bresgi and Heidi Clark.
