

"SPRING CLEANING SALE"
... For Both of You

$9⁹⁹ to $19⁹⁹

Every once in a while, we, at Green River clean house.

This year we have sent it all to our Markham location. Included in the selection are regular stock men's and ladies shirts and sweaters.

Due to the nature of the sale, not all sizes and colors are available in all styles.

The sweaters are 100% wool in various motifs, ribs and neck styles.

The shirts are 100% cotton in button downs and regular collar styles for men, and frill, button down, spread and open neck styles for women.

All merchandise is from our regular selection. Mens sizes S-XL, Ladies sizes 8-14.

NOW $9⁹⁹ to $19⁹⁹

So please join us on Main St. in Markham opposite the post office, near Highway #7.

Personal shopping only please.

Visa, Mastercard and American Express are accepted.

Free parking, gift wrap, and alterations always available.

16 Main St. N., Markham 294-0853
1688 Avenue Rd., Toronto 787-1092
389 Brant St., Burlington 634-1653

Lion members Ivan Harris, (left), of Stouffville and Carl Young, (right), of Claremont, present awards to (left to right), Catherine Link, 18, of Beaverton; Duffy Wallis, 16, of Stouffville, and Sherry Yeates, 17, of Goodwood at the conclusion of the Lions-sponsored District A-16 Effective Speaking Contest held April 16 at Stouffville's Deer Park Inn.

Local speakers advance to Ontario-Quebec finals

Sherry Yeates, 17, of Goodwood, a Grade 12 student at the Stouffville Christian School and Duffy Wallis, 16, a student in Grade 11 at Stouffville District Secondary School, have advanced to the Ontario-Quebec Finals of the Lions-sponsored Effective Speaking Contest.

Sherry and Duffy placed first in their respective divisions at a District A-16 competition in the Deer Park Inn, Stouffville, Wednesday. A third entrant was Catherine Link, 18, of Beaverton, a Grade 13 student, at Brock High School, Sunderland.

Judges were Lenore Hawley, Head of English at Pickering High School; Jan Percy, staff teacher at Summitview Public School and Howard Christie, Vice-Principal of Markham District High School.

Sherry's topic was 'Battle of the Bulge'. Duffy spoke on 'Speech Topics You've Heard Before'. Trophy presentations were made by Lions Past District Governor Carl Young of Claremont and Ivan Harris of Stouffville.

Previous Stouffville area winners have been — Mary-Ann Hulshof and Ted Powers, (1977); Helen Couch, (1980); Tim Pugh, (1983-1984); Sherry Yeates, (1984).

The Ontario-Quebec Finals will be held May 3 at Meriton, Ont., near St. Catharines. Sherry and Duffy will also address the Lions District A-16 Convention at Lindsay, April 27.

NOW OPEN

ELYSE KROWITZ
former owner of Woman's World Salon, Unionville

&

Muriel Noronha
formerly of a Unionville Salon

ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF

HAIR AFFAIR & ESTHETIC SALON

at

4470 Highway #7 (just east of Kennedy Rd.)
in the Thrifty Rent A Car Bldg.

479-2726

OPENING SPECIALS

	reg.	spec.		PERMS
Ladies Cut, Blowdry & Irons	$20.00	$16.00	Reg. Price 75.00	Special 55.00
Gent's Cut & Blowdry	12.00	8.00	Reg. Price 65.00	Special 49.00
Colors	20.00	18.00	Reg. Price 55.00	Special 42.00
Streaks	45.00	38.00	Reg. Price 45.00	Special 34.00
Highlights	35.00	28.00		Cut, Styling Included.

Delores Our Esthetician has trained and worked in Europe & Canada and possesses a gentle and effective approach to all aspects of skin and nail care.

OPENING SPECIAL 25% OFF on all ESTHETICS and COLOUR ANALYSIS
WE DO COMPUTERIZED ELECTROLYSIS — MEDICALLY APPROVED.

20% Off reg. prices to seniors and children under 10.

