Firemen say thanks

Dear Jim:
On behalf of the Stouffville Firefighters, I wish to thank you and your newspaper for coverage related to our April 19 car wash.

I wish also to thank the Uxbridge-Stouffville Ambulance attendants for their assistance, and the owners of the ambulance service for donating all the soap we used.

Our greatest thanks goes to the overwhelming response from the public. We washed 203 cars, two gravel trucks, two big rigs, one horse trailer and one motorcycle.

We raised $856 from car washes plus $86 in beef ticket sales for a total of $942 on the day. All proceeds will be turned over to the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Building Fund.

The Stouffville Volunteer Firefighters' Association offers heartfelt thanks to all those who took part and to all those who gave so generously to our cause.

Sincerely,
Dave Glover,
Secretary-Treasurer

Help for hospital

Whitchurch-Stouffville volunteer firefighters, assisted by ambulance officers, teamed up to raise $942 Saturday in a car wash and beef ticket sale. Participants here are (left to right) Scott Watson, Phil Ruhl and Al Sisco. Proceeds will go to the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Building Fund.

Veteran firefighter Jim Rennie is an old hand at shine-ups and wash-downs. He did a lot of both Saturday. More than 200 vehicles rolled through the Stouffville Fire Station in assembly line procedure. — Jim Thomas
