

There'll always be a Music Mania in Whitchurch-Stouffville. It would seem so after a successful building year following the concert's 25th anniversary in 1985. Here, talented dancer Michelle Green struts her stuff in a stylish tap routine.

The husband and wife team of Jim and Sharron Brazier participate in a beautiful dance, part of the show's "Garribean Cruise" theme. Already, there's talk of Music Mania '87. Director Ann Bell said with the majority anxious to return Show Director Ann Bell takes a bow at the conclusion of same-day concert.

Dance choreographer Angela Tucker displays the kind of skill that made her an obvious choice.

Jim Cadell and Nancy Gillespie were an excellent dance duo. Dance and music are always well received.

Photos by Jim Thomas

