Cancer society needs volunteers

Even though cancer month is past, the needs of patients are ongoing.

The Markham Chapter of the Canadian Cancer Society is in urgent need of volunteer drivers to take patients to their appointments.

Doris Kowalchuk, who works in patient services for the local chapter, explained that initial treatment for some patients involves a visit to the hospital five days a week for four weeks.

She noted that the demand on drivers changes depending on the treatments required for the patient.

To find out more about the service or to volunteer, contact the local society at 294-5925 on Monday, Wednesday or Friday between 1 and 4 p.m.
