Red Shield Blitz planned for May 5

The Markham branch of the Salvation Army is holding its one-night blitz Monday, May 5, not May 6 as was earlier reported. The event, which gets underway at 6 p.m., is to raise funds for the organization's social programs and volunteer canvassers will go door-to-door soliciting donations.

Though no goal has been set, army Corps Officer Jane Shirran says she hopes last year's total of $74,000 for the Markham/Thorhill area can be equalled.

She said volunteers are welcome to help out. For more information call 471-1038 or 471-1625.
