My Mom's the Greatest

She makes beds

My mom is the best mom because sometime's when I forget to make my bed or something, she does it for me (only sometimes)

Her mom deserves an award

My mom's so great she deserves an award. She cooks and cleans, she never gets bored.

She's all full of love from her head to her toes. And even on Sunday she smells like a rose.

There's no one quite like her, she's amazing, she's great. She even loves my brother, that's no mistake.

She married my dad and she loves him too. And if you came visiting she'd welcome you.

She cares when I'm sick and buys me new stuff. She helps me with homework and if that's not enough.

She's there when I've lost a few friends or two. And she's always thinking of nice things to do.

So, as you can see she's the greatest mom. And no one can replace that special someone!

and she's always there when I need her and when I'm sick she stays home with me and takes care of me. My mom helps me get my costumes when I'm in plays and at Halloween.

when I get sick at school even if she had to do something important she would come and get me. My mom is the greatest because she cleans the house a lot. I think my mom should get a holiday because she works so hard.

My mom helps me with some work that I can't figure out and when I have know one to play with my mom plays with me she's fun to play with.

That's why I love my mom very, very, very much.

She can't count the ways mom is great

My mother has a countless number of reasons why she is the greatest, besides being loving and caring (what she is) she is a very responsible person.

She is bringing me up with lots of freedom, which of course I appreciate, but like all moms she won't let me do everything I want. (Like get my hair spiked!)

I know she's doing the best for me. In any case I still love her and always will. Every mom tells their kids not to drink or smoke because it's unhealthy, half of them do.

I promised my mom I would never do any of those things and I know it's a promise I can keep because I know better, and I'd never do anything deliberately to hurt my mother (the greatest of them all!) I love ya mom, you're the best!!
