"Girl Next Door"

Sharon never stops

By JIM THOMAS
DICKSON'S HILL — If a whirlwind settled down in Dickson's Hill, residents wouldn't be alarmed. They'd know it was Sharon Moyer dropping in for a brief respite before leaving again.
 That's her schedule, continually on the move. She's our "Girl Next Door."
 Sharon, 17, daughter of Willard and Ruth Moyer, has always lived at Dickson's Hill. She has two brothers, David and Paul, and a sister Louise.
 Sharon's ability to involve herself in so many activities amazes even her closest friends. She never stops.
 A Grade 12 student at Stouffville High, Sharon hopes to enroll in a Theatre Arts course at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute following graduation. Theatre Arts and English are favorite subjects.
 Her involvement at S.D.S.S. has included the Sr. Band and the Choir. She's also a Prefect. Last year, she and classmate Jill Keith participated in a Co-op Program at "Magic Hill" north of Bloomington. It was there they met Barry Shapiro, one of North America's foremost magicians. Both Sharon and Jill picked up many tricks of the trade.
 "I've always been fascinated by magic," Sharon says, "the instruction proved very valuable."
 Sharon has both her County and Provincial certificates in 4-H. She served as an assistant leader in a 1985 sewing course called "Action Wear," working with Esther Powell and Lillian Davidson of the Stouffville II club.
 Sharon's presently employed part-time in the Stouffville Office of Re/Max Executive Realty. "I'm enjoying it," she says.
 But that's not all.
 This weekend (May 9, 10 and 11), she'll be assisting sister Louise with a display of beautiful custom-made jewellery at Markham's "Today's Women" show at The Fairgrounds, 18th Avenue and McCowan Road. The firm is called "Exquisites." Sharon serves as manager and sales representative.
 Sharon's a member in the congregation of Stouffville Missionary Church. She's president of the Booster Club there, part of the Youth Group executive.
 Last but not far from least, Sharon appreciates the value of close friends, in particular her closest friend, Diana McNalley, Bethesda Road.

"Carrier of the Week"

Saving for college

By JIM THOMAS
STOUFFVILLE — At age 14, most paper carriers are considering retirement.
 Not David Green of 42 Park Drive North, Stouffville.
 He enjoys the challenge of delivering 42 Tribunes every Wednesday and building up his bank account.
 His district includes Park Drive, Tindale Road and Maytree Avenue. He's been making the rounds since May, 1984.
 David, a Grade 9 student at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, is saving up for college. However, he owns a half interest, (with his father), in an Arctic Cat snowmobile and maintains his own BMX bicycle.
 "Why do you do it?" David was asked.
 "The money helps," he replied honestly, "also I like the exercise."
 David hopes to keep the route at least one more year.
 When the papers are particularly heavy, he splits up his deliveries so he can do them all by bicycle. On occasions, brother Paul, eight, helps out.
 Locked doors sometimes pose a problem. He tries to secure the papers the best he can so they don't blow away. He appreciates the fact this irritates people.
 David holds a white belt in karate and has signed up for Bantam House League in softball this summer. He attends the Venturers at Stouffville United Church every Wednesday and the Youth Group at the Missionary Church every Friday.
 Woodworking's his favorite subject at S.D.S.S. He has several completed projects to show for his handiwork including a corner shelf and a table, both prized possessions.

Fourteen-year-old David Green, Park Drive North, Stouffville, has 42 Tribune customers on a route that includes Park Drive, Tindale Road and Maytree Avenue. He's saving his money to help pay part of his college tuition. —Jim Thomas
