Summertime fun

This motorized go-kart, operated by 21-year-old Fred Allbright of Stouffville is both recreation and transportation. Fred purchased the off-road vehicle two years ago for $50. He's done all the maintenance himself. Fred says it's a lot of fun but not the kind of thing you'd take out on Hwy. 401.

Insurance 'policy' not fair

Dear Mr Thomas:
 I wish to thank you for your extremely informative column, (Roaming Around-April 30), related to car insurance costs. Our son, (age 22), has been contemplating the purchase of an automobile several months. He too wants a sporty vehicle—a Fiero. We had no idea his insurance would be so expensive. Between the car and insurance, he'll be in debt almost $15,000. I say a driver is accident-free until he has his first accident. Apparently insurance companies find young motorists 'guilty' in advance. It's not fair.

Sincerely,
 Gordon McGregor,
 R.R. 1, Unionville
