

Artists' talents on display

STOUFFVILLE — Members of the Silver Jubilee Club Art Class displayed their masterpieces, Saturday, at an exhibition of watercolors that attracted much favorable comment.

The class, under the tutelage of Kay Parker, meets every Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. until 12 noon. The cost, subsidized by the Club is only $1.00 per lesson.

The secretary-treasurer is Mary Bowden. New members are welcome.

Participants in Saturday's show included—Kathleen May, Alma Johnson, Olive Murphy, Mary Bowden, Joy Byer, Bessie Pegg, Win Mathews, Hazel Wood and Irene Slack.

Prices ranged from $25 to $125.

Hospital Auxiliary says thanks

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the Auxiliary of York Central Hospital, I extend thanks and appreciation to your newspaper for coverage of our recent fund-raising project, "The Country Store".

Although the final result has not been compiled, we know our efforts earned several thousand dollars. The money will be used to purchase much-needed equipment for the Hospital.

We look forward to continued association with The Tribune.

Sincerely,
Jessie Passmore,
Public Relations Convener,
York Central Hospital Auxiliary,
Richmond Hill

Nine amateur painters displayed their works of art at an exhibit Saturday, held in the Silver Jubilee Club, Stouffville. One of the participants was Win Mathews, Elm Road Apartments, Stouffville. The Stouffville Art

Class meets every Wednesday in the clubhouse at 9:30 a.m. The cost is only $1.00 per lesson. The instructor is Kay Parker of Claremont.
