Christian Women's Club
Host special
guest night

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — A special guest night will be hosted by the Goodwood Christian Women's Club on Friday, May 9. The program, scheduled for community centre at 7 p.m., includes dinner followed by a folk and country music presentation. The special speakers are former National Hockey League player Dean Pre-ntic and his wife June of Cambridge. Tickets, by reservation only, are $13 per person.

in Stouffville. She was predeceased by her husband and resided in Goodwood before and after their marriage.
 "Just a musing one day how to portion the time. There popped to my mind these words in a rhyme: Housework has changed so much these days
 No longer do we say:
 On Monday scrub the dirty clothes, Tuesday iron and put away
 Wednesday was a day to mend, sew buttons on and darn.
 Thursday was the "buying in,"
 for needs around the farm:
 Some sugar, oatmeal, flour, cheese, baking powder, salt and tea, Remembering, too, the children's treat, if cream cheque sufficient be.
 On Friday make the bread and pies, some cookies too and cake.
 Then Saturday's cleaning brings those sighs, and causes us to ache.
 Sunday came next to start the week, so off to church we'd go.
 The Heavenly Father's will to seek; and more like Him to grow.
 But modern times caught up to us and everything's mixed up.
 The laundry's done at any time, or even as we sup.
 The iron is seldom applied. Who ever heard of mending?
 Baking? Scrubbing? We're supplied other ways our time of spending.
 The hours of drudging toil are gone. Each device to save labor we laud
 Now all of the time saved — be sure you have some
 On Sunday to worship God.

The Baptist Ladies will hold a regular meeting on Tuesday, May 13 at the Hockley home on the Fifth Line. Beginning at 7:30 p.m., ladies will view a video that takes them to Indonesia for a visit with Baptist missionaries Dennis and Janet Kirkley.

Sunday, May 11 is a Family Day at Goodwood Baptist. The combined Sunday School and worship service will begin at 10:30 a.m.
 It'll be attended by a 'boo bear', actually a guest speaker in disguise.

Wellington Yake had the misfortune to break his hip in a fall on Friday. He is recovering after undergoing surgery at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

Irene Alderson suffered a fall a week ago and a subsequent examination revealed a back injury.
 She is confined to her bed most of the time at Parkview Home, Stouffville, and would welcome some callers to help pass the time.

Mrs. William Porter (Nola) died in Centenary Hospital recently following a lengthy illness. A funeral service was held Friday
