Happiness is—Lori

By JIM THOMAS
STOUFFVILLE — Happiness is Lori Woolford of 601 Elm Road. She never stops smiling and her radiant personality is catching. She has a host of close friends. "I look forward to each day," says Lori, "every morning I wake up excited." She's our "Girl Next Door." Lori, 15, is a Grade 10 student at Stouffville High. She has a younger sister, Stacy, eleven. Although only in her second year at S.D.S.S., Lori's very involved in extra-curricular activities. She was a dancer in the '86 Variety Show, is a member of the Athletic Council and recently joined the newly-formed Toe Alpha organization. She served on the school's cheerleading team in 1984-85. Downhill skiing's her favorite sport. Lori has only good things to say about Stouffville High, teachers Sue Kofler, (Phys. Ed.) and Jim Rehill, (English) in particular. She attended the May, From at The Firefighters' Club, Friday night. Her escort was Glen Graham of Cedar Valley. With respect to a future career, Lori wants something associated with people and children. Enjoyable holidays have included trips to the East Coast and Alberta, California, Nevada and Mexico. Some day, she hopes to visit Australia. Lori speaks highly of her parents and the fact her friends are always made to feel welcome. This, she says, is important. Lori takes a firm stand against alcohol. "Drinking's not fun," she says. She recently joined the Toe Alpha Club established recently at S.D.S.S. "What do you think of Stouffville?" Lori was asked. "It's a friendly town," she says. However, she'd like to see more ongoing activities at the new Rec. Centre, including dances.

"Carrier of the Week"

Twelve-year-old Tammy Grove of Churchill Drive, Musselman's Lake, has a perfect no-complaint record as a Tribune and Weekender carrier. Her route includes Churchill Drive and a section of the Ninth Line, 52 customers in total.

Perfect record

By JIM THOMAS
MUSSELMAN'S LAKE — Twelve-year-old Tammy Grove was neatly dressed when I called at her home on Churchill Drive South, Saturday. "I bought this sweater myself," said the pleasant Grade 12 pupil at Ballantrae Public School. I told her how nice she looked. Tammy has her own bank account, thanks in part to a newspaper route that includes 26 Tribune subscribers and 52 receiving the Weekender. Her deliveries cover Churchill Drive South; Churchill Drive East and the Ninth Line to Sun Valley Store. "I enjoy doing it," says Tammy. Her mother, (Marlene), takes her by car when the weather's cold. In the past eighteen months, Tammy's never had a complaint. "Along the Ninth, I put the papers in mailboxes," she explains, "elsewhere, I leave them between the doors." While dogs are common, Tammy's never been bitten. "I've been growled at a few times," she says. Tammy's an enthusiastic bowler with eight trophies and more than 70 badges to her credit. It's her favorite sport. This summer, she'll be playing softball for Ballantrae. Tammy appreciates her close circle of friends. She considers her customers part of this group. She knows many by name. Tammy's the daughter of Larry and Marlene Grove. She has an older brother, Michael, 14.
