

Plowmen leave soon for championship match

This month, plowmen leave Ontario to participate in the Canadian and World Championships at Olds, Alberta. Each competitor has transported his own tractor and plow on a tractor-trailer owned by Howard Bolender, R.R. 4, Stouffville. Shown here in the midst of loading operations are (left to right) Daryl Hostrawser of Belwood; Eric Timbers and Ken Ferguson of Stouffville. Not shown here is Paul Dodds of Seaford, an entry in the Canadian Jr. Championships, replacing the injured Tom Robinson of Cookstown. —Jim Thomas
