All students shone like stars at Ballantrae P.S. Music Night

The annual Ballantrae Public School Music Night, May 7 and 8, featuring the two-act play Mirror-Mirror, proved a tremendous success.

The Trobbadors, (left to right) are Edith Coates, Elaine Beam, Kelly Sheridan and Sara Burdon.

He couldn't do it, Woodsman (Michael Pongracz), couldn't bring himself to kill the lovely Snow White (Corina Wilson). Corina and Michael played lead roles in the musical Mirror-Mirror, featured Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Donnie Wallace, Grade 3, was a member of the Jr. Choir directed by Donna Friedbacher and Joan Wideman.

Carolyn McKeen, 14, as the Wicked Queen displayed a talent for both acting and singing.

The Ballantrae Public School Band, under the direction of Bill Rieder, played six selections.

The Ballantrae Jr. Choir, comprised of students in Grades 3 to 6, The director, here is Donna Friedbacher. Staff teacher Joan Wideman also shared the podium with Mrs. Friedbacher.
