HIDDEN WORD SEARCH

Listed below are 31 words that relate to a special event coming in 1986. The words are formed in the diagram forwards, backwards, up, down, diagonally up, or diagonally down, but they are always in a straight line and are never formed by skipping over any letters. We have started you off by circling CENSUS in the diagram. The words sometimes overlap and letters can be used more than once. You will not, however, use all the letters in the diagram. When the leftover letters are unscrambled, they give you the date of this special event.

Reesor Park Public School Let's take a trip to the year 2010

I'm in Grade 9 and our teachers were replaced by the new unit of exclusive robots called V-Four.

In the year 2009 I was 14 years old. Last night I had a great party. More than 66 people were invited. We were celebrating the new year!

My story starts when I'm at home just waking up.

"Peep, peep. Good morning Karen the time is now 9 a.m. This is the second time I've had to wake you up. You've wasted two bowls of Astromash cereal and if you don't hurry up you'll waste your third one!"

My future as an adult

My future as a grownup will be exciting you will see.

With no sister nagging and to argue with me,

I'll watch all my TV shows and wear my own clothes,

And have lots of dates with good looking beaus,

A few disadvantages I'm sure there will be,

Like no one around to clean up after me,

My favorite muffins will no longer be,

Kept warm in the oven waiting for me,

My washing and ironing will have to be done by no one other than me,

When from the office I come, But for now I'll be happy to remain as a youth,

Oh good! Where's the fairy, I just lost a tooth!

Looking in the mirror I said to myself: "What a night I had celebrating the new year." "Oh no look at the shopping bags under my eyes!"

The busport came right at 10 a.m. Kim was saving me a seat. School that day was very boring as usual. I have to do a project on the lost city of the Saturn Rings.

That night I decided I would dream about being a movie star just finishing my greatest movie ever, "Pretty in Ultramarine Blue."

Each person in my family has a computer that makes you dream. Press in your code and the computer will start telling you about your dream.

I drifted off finally after pressing in my code.

The next morning was the same. My side computer came on telling the time and all that jazz. On the way to Pluto Uranus School I told Kim and Jennifer about my dream. They thought it was cosmetic!

Arriving at school I hurried to my personal astro compartment and pressed in my number code.

My first class is Math. It hasn't changed much, we still do the same stuff the people in the year 1986 did.

I noticed our robot teacher VSK-Masky had new orbit nails. They were the color meteorite violet. They really showed up. I knew my mom would probably be getting some soon.

The day went slow. It seemed like hours I had been in my History class. As I walked through the front door of my house my computer greeted me with, "Hello Karen you made it in time to watch The Old and the Restless and to have some Astromash Cherry Coke, the best tasting pop in the universe!"

Ferrari — King of the road

Here it comes,
There it goes!
The Ferrari,
Rules the roads!
You can be rich,
You can be poor!
But get in a Ferrari,
And shut the door!

Put on your seatbelt,
And make it tight!
So you'll return safely,
When you return from your flight!
Get on to a highway,
Press it down to the floor!
And in half of a minute,
And nothing more!

You'll be up to three hundred,
You'll just be a streak!
To the mice in the field,
And the fish in the creek!
To the people in the city,
And the people in towns!
Come to think of it,
You'd better come down!

Hot, sticky day

I'm sitting at school on a hot, sticky day,
I can't wait to get home to go in the pool and play,
Splashing away,
Laughing for what seems like forever.

Suddenly somebody screamed,
It sounds like a familiar scream,
I heard in a dream,
It was a scream from the dream I had down at the stream,
Suddenly somebody tapped me on the shoulder,
Guess what? I was in school.
