

Stampede shocks couple

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTHLINE—Former residents Gordon and Maud Bell suffered from shock recently when returning home to Stouffville on the 9th Conc. of Pickering. A herd of horses came charging out of a secluded sideroad into the path of their car. The vehicle was severely damaged but the Bells suffered little personal injury.

The Baptist Women's meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 10 at the home of Beatrice Hockley. It is expected the video, which was to have been shown last month, will have arrived. Program convener will be Vivian Turner and the co-hostess, Esther Archer.

Rev. Harley Winborn was guest speaker at Goodwood Baptist Church on Sunday.

The Goodwood Cemetery Board will hold a plot-owners' meeting on Tuesday, June 17 at 8 p.m. in Goodwood Community Centre.

Harvey and Verna Bunker, having recovered from a bout with the flu, visited the area last week. Thank you for the tasty lake trout, Mr. Bunker. It was so good!

Mervin and Eleanor Bunker have opened a pine furniture and antique shop on their Minden property. It is well worth a visit.

John Pilkey escaped serious injury last week when his clothing was caught in the power controls of a tractor. He was fortunate to receive no more than bruises and the loss of his clothes.

June is a special month for senior citizens and also special to all who endeavor to bring some happiness into the lives of the elderly. Cards, letters and personal visits are all good ways to observe seniors' month. Here's a related verse:

Blessed are they who understand my faltering steps and palsied hand.

Blessed are those who seem to know that my eyes are dim and my thinking's slow.

Blessed are they who know the ways to share the memories of olden days.

Blessed are those who make it known, I'm loved, respected and not alone.

Blessed are they who ease the days of my journey Home in such loving ways.

Former Whitevale couple celebrates 50th anniversary

Long-time Whitevale residents George and Catharine Hamlin celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday. A large number of family members and friends helped mark the occasion with a reception held at Whitevale. The Hamlins, who now reside in Whitby, received a special plaque of recognition on behalf of Ontario Premier David Peterson.

 Gas barbecues are a convenient and economical way to enjoy outdoor cooking, but they must be used carefully and kept in good condition.
 Every summer, backyard chefs are injured and property is damaged in gas barbecue fires. Here are a few safety tips to ensure your barbecue parties don't go up in smoke.

1. There's only one way to connect a propane cylinder to a barbecue—the right way. Follow the manufacturer's instructions closely and keep the fuel hose away from any metal parts which may become hot.
2. Check for leaks regularly: Brush a soap and water solution over hoses and connectors and open the cylinder valve. If there's a leak, bubbles will form in the soap film.
3. Keep your barbecue at least 10 feet from buildings, overhangs and combustible structures.
4. Don't try to light a barbecue with the lid closed. If it fails to light or goes out, turn the gas off and wait five minutes before relighting.
5. When finished, close all valves.
6. Never bring propane cylinders indoors.
7. If you suspect your barbecue isn't working properly, have it checked by a qualified serviceman.

Make sure you don't have to invite the fire department to your next barbecue. For a free copy of the brochure "Living Safely with Propane", contact the Consumer Information Centre at 555 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont. M7A 2H6—(416) 963-1111 or toll free at 1-800-268-1142.
