Most parents when naming their children use a favorite or a Bible name. This man's father names his son Hallelujah, his purpose being that when his son's name was mentioned, praise would be given to God. On one occasion, in Moscow, Russia, when de-planing at Moscow's large airport, his son's name was mistakenly listed among the diplomatic corps. When trying to locate him, they called over the loud speaker, "Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah."

His name is Rev. D. F. Hallelujah Israel.
