

Claremont Public School

A Fun Day for students

A 'frightening' experience at Claremont P.S.

Clowning around in Claremont
