

Period garb helps recreate Uxbridge Music Hall's 1901 opening

Uxbridge Chamber Choir's presentation of 'Music Hall 1901'. Below, Tom Baker directs the 25-voice group in a re-enactment of the inaugural hall concert. The historical society assisted the production. —Chris Shanahan

Scenic surroundings at Elgin Pond

Uxbridge's picturesque Elgin Pond has sprung to life with the arrival of warmer temperatures. It's a popular bathing spot during the summer months and also serves as a haven for a variety of water fowl. This photograph was taken as two ducks cruised by on a recent sunny Sunday afternoon.
