Glenn Gould's father returns for Uxbridge Music Hall gala

Former Uxbridge resident Russell Gould was a special guest Saturday during a recreation of the inaugural 1901 concert held at the town's new Music Hall. Mr. Gould, father of the late Glenn Gould, witnessed Uxbridge Chamber Choir's performance in the building that was graced on more than one occasion by his son's musical mastery. Here, he's flanked after the concert by choir director Tom Baker (right) and his wife and accompanist Anne Baker. Mr. Gould noted that he was born in 1901, the same year the concert hall opened its doors.
