

Get Dad's photograph taken

Unionville Update

Lorrie Parry 471-5762

Dad can get his photo taken free on Father's Day (June 15) between noon and 3 p.m. provided that he's dressed in the duds his grandad would have worn and is accompanied by a son or daughter. The location is not available at press time.

The Unionville Business Improvement Association is providing the photographer. There will be special gifts as well.

Heritage Center is a beehive of activity in preparation for their annual Flea Market scheduled for this Saturday (June 14) from 11 a.m. — 2 p.m. For great buys, hustle on over to the Center which is located at 17 Anna Russell Way in Unionville. (Anna Russell Way is north of Hwy. #7; west of Kennedy Road off Eureka Street and there's loads of parking available.)

On sale will be beautiful hand-crafted items, books of all descriptions including hard and soft cover, as well as children's books, toys and games for the young 'uns; antiques and collectibles; jewellery and accessories; plants; and white elephant tables chocked full of household items, dishes, glasses, bric-a-brac, etc.

To tempt your appetites, on hand will be delicious home baking such as cakes, pies, cookies and squares. Or you might like to sample the Bar-B-Q lunch of mouth watering hot dogs, or donuts, along with coffee or soft drinks.

This event sounds like fun for the entire family and probably one that you won't want to miss! All proceeds will go to support programs at the Center.

Spring Fling

The Unionville Tennis Club will be holding a "Friday 13th Spring Fling" this Friday at Crosby Memorial Community Center. Festivities kick off with a social hour at 7 p.m., dinner at 8 p.m. and dancing the night away until 1 a.m. to D.J. music. Dinner will consist of a hot and cold buffet. Activities also include a hula hoop contest and a good old muscle-hurting twist competition. Dress is optional for getting into the mood of dancing to great nostalgic music.

Several door prizes as well as spot dance prizes will be given away. To obtain your tickets at $15 per person, please contact Carol Wong at 477-6470.

Birthday Party

On Wednesday, June 25 at 7:30 p.m., Heritage Center will be conducting their "Birthday Party and Games Night". This is a night for all members to celebrate the January to June birthdays.

Games from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. will consist of your choice of court whist, euchre, bridge, cribbage, trivial pursuit, backgammon, crokinole or aggravation. Following the games there will be a sing-song followed by...what else but birthday cake and ice cream!

Tickets are already on sale at a cost of .75 cents each. Birthday people — no charge...but you must pick up your ticket prior to the event in order that the social committee can anticipate how many to prepare for.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

You can be robbed of what you have but not of what you are.

Calling on local support

Milliken Mills

Keith Dault 475-3816

The count down has begun for the most important and exciting event in Milliken Mills. Three days from today Summerfest '86 will become a reality. Residents of Milliken Mills as well as our friends and neighbors in Markham are invited to our third annual Summerfest. On Saturday, June 14 from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. at the Milliken Mills Community Center the MMCA executive guarantees us a fun filled day. All that is required is your presence, please patronize this important event. A record high turnout is the best thank you gift for Joe Harnum and the rest of the executive who have spent months putting this event together.

Opening ceremonies are scheduled for 10 a.m. sharp and the presiding dignitaries will be Mayor Carole Bell, regional councillor Ron Moran, ward 8 councillor Alex Chiu and Summerfest chairman Joe Harnum. From there you can expect eight hours of non-stop entertainment and food to satisfy every palate. Various community groups will have information booths set up, so drop by and find out about Child Find, Block Parents or Information Markham just to name a few.

The Polka Dot Door live show is the featured attraction. Tickets are a dollar and can be purchased at Milliken Mills Pharmacy, Fenton IDA drug store and National Video. The generous sponsorship of Canada Homes has enabled the MMCA executive to offer this popular childrens show at such reduced rates. Show times are 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Buy your tickets early to avoid being disappointed because seats are limited.

Non-stop stage entertainment will be provided by a number of professional entertainers as well as by a number of groups within our community. We will hear from the Heritage Singers, a singing duo, a steel band, a rock band and a comedian. Community groups such as the Filipino dancers, Chinese dancers, Sri Lanka Dancers, Hawaiian dancers, Hindi Parish dancers and St. Mary de Leuca daycare dancers will all be there to entertain us.

Foods to satisfy all age groups and the diverse ethnic mix of Milliken Mills will be available. The usual hot dogs, pizza, popcorn, ice cream treats, candy floss and freeze pops will all be on sale. However, for the more adventurous amongst us you will find East Indian, West Indian and Filipino cuisine available.

A number of craft booths will be selling and demonstrating their projects. Silk flowers, dried flowers, glass trinkets and childrens toys and novelties will be there to name just a few.

The children can look forward to pony rides. Once again the ever popular moon walk will be there. Two puppet shows at 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. are scheduled. Face painting and roving clowns along with the Markham Gymnasts will be entertaining.

Graduation

Lori Michele Evans of Hamilton Hall Dr. Markham recently graduated from Wilfred Laurier University in Waterloo with an honors degree in Business Administration. Lori plans to travel before beginning full time employment.

Last day for Arts Festival

A show of paintings will feature the work of Markham artist Judy Livingston.

Mrs. Livingston will have a display at the Markham Theatre and will be on hand during the final day of the Celebration of the Arts on Sunday, June 22 from noon to 5 p.m.

Her show is from June 18 to July 18. Viewing hours are Monday, 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Tuesday to Friday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday noon to 6 p.m.

Mrs. Livingston is a former elementary school teacher who has been exhibiting her work since 1978. She works in oils, charcoal, pastels, pen and ink, gouache, acrylic, mixed media collage and watercolors.

She's a member of the Markham Group of Artists and Arts Scarborough and has won two recent awards: best of the show, Markham Group of Artists April '86 and honorary mention in watercolor, Thornhill Village Art Guild juried show April '86.

Youth Chorus Auditions

Auditions for students to join the Youth Chorus are being held from 4 to 9 p.m. on June 16, 17, 18 and 19 at the Jefferson Building.

For an appointment, call Cathy Cassel at 893-1711 (during the day) or 898-5437 (evenings).

The auditions are open to all York Region Board of Education students.

Auditions will be held in the gymnasium at Jefferson School, 11570 Yonge St., north end of Richmond Hill.
