

Top SDSS athletes of 1986

They're the best

BOTTOM LEFT: It was no surprise when downhill skier ace Cathy Graham was honored as outstanding skier this year. She was the 13th fastest female out of 24 schools that competed at Blue Mountain in the Stayner Invitational this past January.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Liz Sled and Rob Reesor were crowned the top female and male athletes of the year. They were involved in almost every school sport. Reesor tied for MVP with Gary McGillivray in volleyball. Sled was school fitness champion and top female at the annual Spartan Challenge with other York Region schools.

SPORTS SHORTS

Horse Ride and Barbeque

The Boots and Saddle Western Horse Club is organizing a trail ride and barbeque, Saturday June 14 at 1 p.m. Location is Al's Tack Shop, Vandorf Road. Everyone is welcome. For ticket information, call Diane Howe 640-1587 or Al's Tack Shop 640-2011.

Arabian Breeders Show

Over 200 Arabian, half-arabian and anglo-arabian horses from across Ontario and north-eastern United States will compete in the classic Canadian Arabian Breeders Show, June 14-15 at Zweibrucken Farms (McCowan Avenue, north of Stouffville Road). This year marks the event's 25th anniversary, and it will also be contributing to the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Building Fund. For ticket information contact Jane Whitwell 751-1140 or 887-9303.

4X4 Truck Jamboree

Stouffville 4X4 truck and pick-up enthusiasts are welcome to join the 4X4 Jamboree at Markham Fairgrounds, June 20-22. There will be an obstacle course, mud bog, show and shine, tug o' war, prizes and more. Live entertainment, camping, car auction show and flea market are highlights as well.

Three-day passes cost $15, one-day tickets $10. For more information call Fred James 686-1938 or York Region Off-Road Association 294-9683.

A Royal Soccer Referee

Jeff Carney, who plays on the Stouffville Royals bantam boys soccer squad, just can't stay away from the sport. Last Monday night he was spotted officiating a pee-wee representative game at Stouffville's new soccer fields.

It's his first year doing all-star games and he admits it's quite different from the recreational action. "There's more pressure (on me) now. The coaches and players take the game more seriously," he notes, "but I'm confident enough."

Hockey player 'kicked off' team

Nicole Bird, a Newmarket high school student who played hockey for Stouffville's intermediate girls team this past winter, was barred from playing on her school soccer team in the Georgian Bay championship recently.

The reason — the 18-year-old scoring ace drove a teammate to a game, thus violating a school insurance agreement which asks students to take public transit or walk in keeping with safety procedures. Bird's team lost to Bradford 2-1 in overtime. "I wasn't suspended, I was kicked off the team and I feel it was deliberate," she charged.

Ladies Slo-pitch tourney

The 5th Annual Umpire Ladies Slo-pitch tourney gets underway this weekend (June 13-15) at Stouffville's three diamonds. Teams competing include Betz Pools, four Uxbridge teams (Ballingers, Dominion Auto, Exploders, King's Angels), Claremont, Milliken Mills, Unionville Pole Line and Unionville Merchants, and Stouffville Tuesday night ladies all-stars.

Stouffville riders win at horse show
