

Hospital board says thank you

Dear Sir:
On behalf of the Board of the Markham-Stouffville Hospital we would like to thank everyone who contributed to the success of our annual meeting on June 5th.
As you can appreciate the logistics involved in organizing the registration, balloting and scrutineering of the voting for the Trustees is overwhelming. To the hundreds of volunteers, a hearty thank you. To Kerry Gilmore and his staff at the Markham Centennial Centre a special thanks for their cooperation and commitment to a job well done. A special thanks to Ray Ostrander who organized and coordinated the balloting and counting procedure.

behind us, the prime mandate of the Board again focuses on "bricks and mortar in the cornfield". In July of this year, tenders will be called for the site works to prepare the site for the construction of our Hospital. Upon the completion of the site works this fall, tenders for the general contract for the construction of our Hospital will be called and we anticipate that construction will commence by year end. Thank you once again to our community for their support as our Hospital moves closer to becoming a reality.

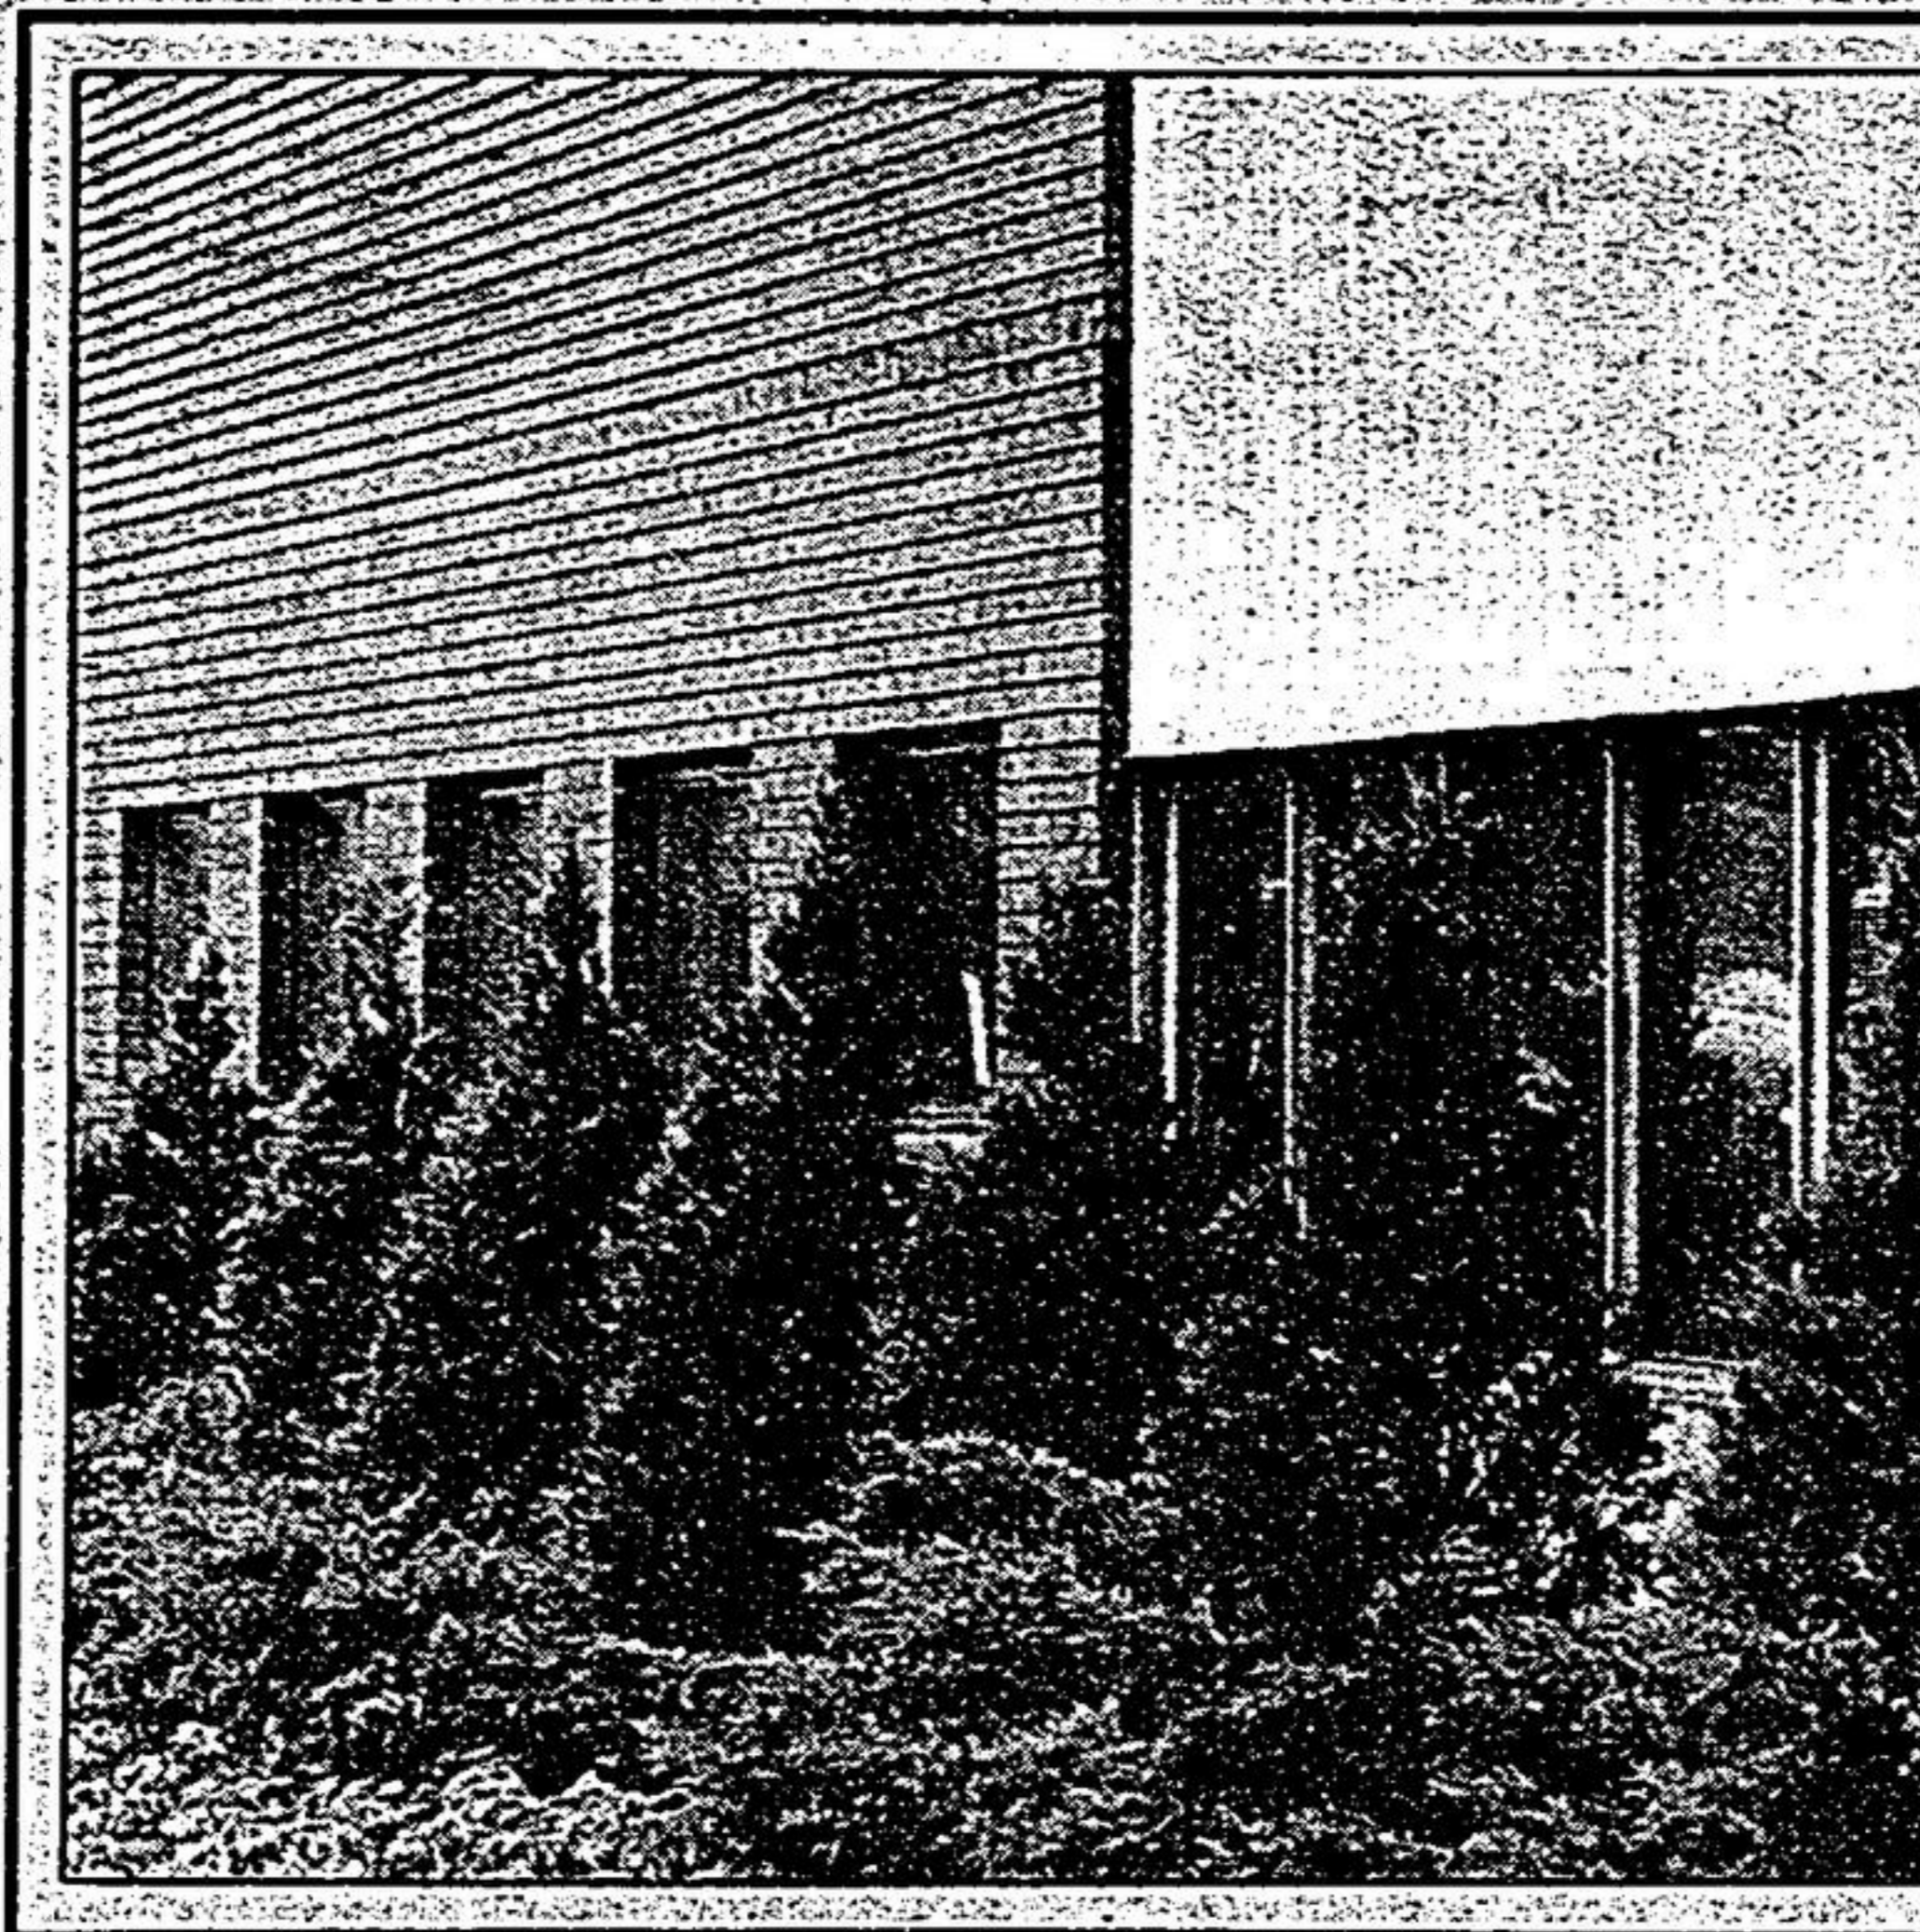

Sincerely,
B. Mac Cosburn
Chairman
Markham-Stouffville Hospital
Board of Trustees

Take care of parks

Dear Sir:
I would like to take this opportunity to comment on Elizabeth Mooney's letter which appeared in your June 7th issue. Let's hope her frank criticism of Markham's parks will encourage us to take better care of them. Last Sunday my wife and I visited Sherwood Park in Toronto. It was very well maintained with little or no littering of any kind, and showed no evidence of a dandelion problem. If Toronto can do it why can't we? Many of Markham streets are badly littered with paper, broken bottles, cans, wrappers etc., trailing from convenience and other stores, schools, picnic and other areas frequented to a great extent by our younger citizens. These specific areas which are more vulnerable to heavy littering should receive special attention, namely: biweekly cleanup, better grass and weed control, more trash receptacles (intelligently placed), signs asking for the public's cooperation, and local anti-littering publicity and promotion. Yes we do have pride in Markham — let's show it!
