Cake specialist to open store

For Jennie Mann, Pringle Avenue, Markham, it's a dream come true. On July 10, she'll open her very own store in Seaton Park Plaza, west of Hwy. 48 at Stonemason Drive and 16th Avenue, Markham.

It'll be called 'Jennie's World of Cakes'. A cake-making specialist, Jennie will provide whatever type of cake the customer desires—wedding, birthday, anniversary, you name it. She'll also carry cake supplies including mouldings and decorations.

"It's something the Markham area has needed for a long time," says Jennie. The closest store of its kind is in Richmond Hill.

Jennie's interest in cake-making began when she enrolled in a night school course at Cedarbrae Collegiate in 1971. Four years later, she attended a two-week seminar at Wilton's School of Cakes in Chicago. "The first day, I learned how much I didn't know," she recalls.

Jennie has perfected three humongous cakes during her 15-year career, each measuring 4 ft. by 8 ft. "The one took six men to carry," she remembers.

Wedding cake rentals are increasing in popularity, Jennie explains. The cost ranges from $40 to $50.

"I start with the bride's wish," says Jennie, "a complete cake, a styrofoam or part of each." Styrofoam cakes today look so much like the real thing, says Jennie, many people can't tell the difference.

May wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Carson are pictured here following their May 10 wedding in Greenwood United Church. The bride is the former Lisa McTaggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken McTaggart of Greenwood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carson, R.R. 2, Claremont. The bride's maid of honor was Dale Pascoe. Bridesmaids were Sandra Carson and Tammy McTaggart. The groom's best man was Paul Phillips. Ushers were Michael McTaggart and Rick Bleasdale.
