

AROUND TOWN

FROM WINDSOR

Dr. Norman Fretz and wife Mary of Windsor were visitors on the weekend with his brother and sister-in-law, Eldon and Freda Fretz, Main Street East, Stouffville. Dr. Fretz, born and raised at Bethesda, is the chief psychiatrist at the Hotel Dieu Hospital in Windsor.

STILL THE CHAMP

Gladys Clarkson, Montreal Street, Stouffville, retained the Pie-Baking Championship she won last year. Gladys's entry was judged Best Over-All in competition Saturday, sponsored by the Gormley Women's Institute. Other prize-winners were Wendy Cartwright, Park Drive North, Stouffville and Melanie Chong, Stuart Street, Stouffville.

WINS SCHOOL LETTER

Although omitted from the Orchard Park Jr. Graduation ceremony, Susie Baston, Clarke Street, Stouffville, was the winner of a coveted School Letter for 1985-86. This award comes about through the accumulation of points in other areas. In addition to this, Susie also received individual Letters in Academics and Sports.

LOVELY SHOWER

Wilma Medley, Maystone Court, Stouffville, hosted a lovely bridal shower, June 25, for Laurie Kerr of Agincourt. Laurie and Alan Currie, also of Agincourt, will be married Oct. 11 and later take up residence in one of the Greenpark homes here in town.

LATE JACK O'NEILL

The death is reported of Mr Jack O'Neill of Belleville, brother of the Late L.E. 'Tim' O'Neill of Stouffville. Jack will be remembered by many long-time Stouffville residents.

SHUFFLEBOARD WIN

Edna Mashinter of Stouffville and her sister, Elsie MacDonald of Kincardine, won first place in the Ontario Shuffleboard Association mixed doubles held June 23 and 24 at the Clairlea Arena, Scarborough. Earlier, (June 21-22), Edna placed fourth in the mixed singles main event. Their sister, Jean Gilchrist of Scarborough, won fourth in the consolation. More than 100 participated in the event, some coming from as far distant as Michigan, Sudbury and Manitoulin Island.

SEEK VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers are required at Green Gables Manor, Bloomington. For additional information call Diane Peak at 640-1310.

GARAGE SALE

The Markham Chapter of Pilot International is holding a Garage Sale this Saturday, (July 5), at the Stouffville Sales Barn from 8:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. Items will include china, jewellery, toys, crafts, clothes, books and glassware.

GRADUATE M.D.

Congratulations to Nancy Ku, Main Street East, Stouffville, now a graduate medical doctor. Nancy is an honors graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

SOON TO RETIRE

Paul Roney, Ninth Line North, is soon to retire as manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Stouffville. Mr Roney is presently on vacation. His successor is Mr Reg Wood.

CUSTOM REVIVED

Newlyweds Steve and Deanna Grove, 18th Avenue, Markham, may have thought the old-fashioned shivaree was a practice long-gone and forgotten. Last week, they were reminded that it's very much in style. Members of the Unionville Jr. Farmers, (and friends), broke the stillness of the night air with a clatter loud enough to wake the dead. Steve and Dianna welcomed(?) their uninvited guests in true country style and even invited them inside after the majority had already made themselves at home.

LATE FLORENCE REDSHAW

Only a week following her 97th birthday, Mrs Florence Redshaw passed away at Parkview Home in Stouffville. The service will be held Wednesday, (today), at 2 p.m., from the O'Neill Funeral Home with interment Uxbridge Cemetery. Mrs Redshaw is survived by four daughters, Lillian Brown, Aldine Sinclair, Bernice Ringwood and Doris Farthing; two sons, James Walker and Murray Redshaw; 14 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. A complete obituary write-up will appear in next week's Tribune.

PASTOR-WIFE HONORED

Rev. and Mrs Grant Sloss of Markham were honored last week at a gathering in the Penalty Box Lounge of the Markham Centennial Centre. The occasion was in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary and 40 faithful years spent by Mr Sloss in the ministry.

She'll be missed

Mrs Irene Conklin, for the past 15 years a familiar crossing guard on Main Street East at Summitview School, retired June 25. The staff and students accorded her a big 'thank you' in the form of a special program and a brand new bicycle. Mrs Conklin is moving to Newmarket. She's shown here with student 'friends' Darlene Bagg, Cherrie Brown, Andrea Wollner, Jennifer Gold and Nadine Rennicks.

LOOKING FOR A HOME

Wally Currie, teacher on the staff of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, is seeking temporary accommodation for his family until their new home is completed near Goodwood. The house is required by September. Wally and Christine Currie and girls currently reside at Cookstown. Anyone knowing of a house in the area that's available for the next twelve months, call the High School at 640-1433.

LATE GRACE PAISLEY

Service was held recently at the O'Neill Funeral Home, Stouffville, for Grace Paisley following her passing at Belleville. Miss Paisley, a dedicated public school teacher for 35 years, was born in the Twp. of Uxbridge. She taught for a time at Garibaldi School and, until two years ago, at Campbellford. A sister, Mrs Flora Baker, resides on Rupert Avenue in Stouffville.

IRWIN REUNION

Members of the Irwin family enjoyed a reunion, June 22, at the home of Roy and Karen Irwin in St. Catharines. More than 50 attended, some coming from as far distant as Jamestown, New York and Buffalo. The youngest in attendance was five-month-old Erin O'Connor of Pickering.

NEW WORSHIP TIMES

The congregations of Stouffville United Church and St. James Presbyterian Church are reminded that services begin at 10 a.m. this Sunday, (July 6), and will continue at this hour throughout the summer.
