

Pastor returns to Baptist pulpit

By MARJORIE WOODLAND

FOURTH LINE — Rev. Gary Manzo is welcomed back in the pulpit at Goodwood Baptist Church following his assignment in Florida with Stouffville's Emmanuel International mission agency.

The Baptist Church Women will hold a meeting on Tuesday, July 8 at the home of Marjorie Woodland. It gets underway at 11:30 a.m. with a lawn picnic scheduled for 12:30 p.m., followed by an afternoon of contests and fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wilson were greatly missed when they left Goodwood for Haliburton several years ago. However, they've recently returned to the area and taken up residence in Stouffville's new Parkview Village. Nettie still suffers the effects of a stroke from a few years ago. We welcome the Wilsons back.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson, well-known former Goodwood residents, lost their Minden-area home and its contents in a fire last Thursday evening. The blaze had been extinguished but flared up again later that night and completely destroyed the house.

A happy birthday wish goes out to Mabel Walker of Eldercare Manor, Stouffville, from friends in your home area. Among her many visitors on this occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Leland Emerson of North Bay, her niece and nephew.

We wish a happy 40th wedding anniversary to Bob and Betty James, and also to Gordon and Mae Jones. Walter and Lily Hope will celebrate their 40th anniversary July 6. To these couples we'd like to say, as you celebrate your special day this comes to wish for you, a day of happy memories and many pleasures, too.
