

Cty. Jamboree
in Pickering
July 18-20

The Tribune

Sports & Classified
A Metroland Community Newspaper

Roller-skating
at Stouffville
Thurs., July 3

Second Section

Wednesday, July 2, 1986

New Fair Queen, Princess crowned at Spring Water Days pageant

Eighteen-year-old Lindsey Moody is the new Uxbridge Fair Queen following Friday's pageant at the secondary school auditorium. The Beta Sigma Phi representative (seated at front in left photo) is accompanied by (from left) Princess Lisa John, 17, (sponsored by IODE); 17-year-old

Cynthia Siegrist (sponsored by Sweet Adelines of Uxbridge), who was chosen Miss Congeniality by her fellow contestants; and 1985 Fair Queen Helen Hockley. The township's Citizen of the Year, Maude Gould, was also honored during the program, which marked the official opening of Spring Water Days. The annual summer celebration continued throughout the weekend and concluded with a Canada Day extravaganza in Elgin Park yesterday (July 1). In photo at right, bandaged musician Nash The Slash plays guitar at Uxbridge Arena during a Friday night appearance by the band FM. That well-attended SWD event was sponsored by the Gorgon Foundation Inc.

—Chris Shanahan

Uxbridge Public School honored its outstanding students as the 1985-86 term drew to a close last week. The Excellence in Academics Award for boys and girls went to Michael Kerford (left) and Carolyn Dempster, while the Annual Junior Canadian Citizenship Award was presented to Nicole Fockler and Willy Bernier.

Receiving major awards June 24 during a Grade 8 graduation ceremony at Claremont Public School are (from left) Jennifer Greer, General Academic Proficiency Award; Leanne Redshaw, Ken Ward Memorial Trophy for All-Round

Proficiency; and Julie Winterstein, Muriel Gostick Citizenship Award and Carson Award for Citizenship. Outgoing principal Jim Crosbie is pictured at right.

Students honored by area schools at awards nights

Grade 8 graduates Glenn Foote (left) and Stephanie Williams, Triple 'A' Award winners at Greenwood's Valley View Public School, receive

congratulations from principal W.D. Brown. The students were honored for academic and athletic achievement combined with a good attitude.

Award winners at Goodwood Public School include, front row (from left) Andrea Hathaway, Citizenship Award; Mark Fine, Math; Trevor Weldon, Achievement Award; and Martin Holloway, Social Studies. Back row (from left): Angela Gayman, Music; Donny Woolhead, Art; Becky Farquharson, English; and Peter Frijio, Public Speaking.

Robert Morrison (right), principal at Uxbridge's Joseph Gould Senior Public School, congratulates the school's top 1985-86 graduates.

Amy Barton and Keith Olivella were recipients of outstanding student awards on June 25.

—Chris Shanahan