

Hank the Lobster is a major attraction at Monika's Sea Treasures, a seafood and specialty shop located on Hwy. 47 in Uxbridge. Here, owner Monika Urben handles 6-pound-plus crustacean with care.

Feeling there was a real need for more "specialized food" in the Uxbridge area, Monika Urben decided to open her own store.

And the Uxbridge resident was obviously correct as Monika's Sea Treasures has built a large clientele since its birth in a Hwy. 47 mini-plaza two years ago.

While a tank full of live lobsters is an immediate customer attraction, these crustaceans are by no means all Monika's has to offer.

Ms. Urben makes weekly trips to the city to pick up a wide selection of seafood which includes shrimp, crab legs and salmon plus other items such as frog legs and steak (popular with surf and turf enthusiasts).

A variety of deli-style specialty foods are available while homemade crab meat and shrimp salads are also big with the party set, she said. And a selection of cheeses is another customer favorite.

An integral part of the operation is a take-out fish and chip counter, serving fresh halibut among other ocean catches.

Regular customers are treated like family at Monika's and staff members provide helpful tips at every opportunity.

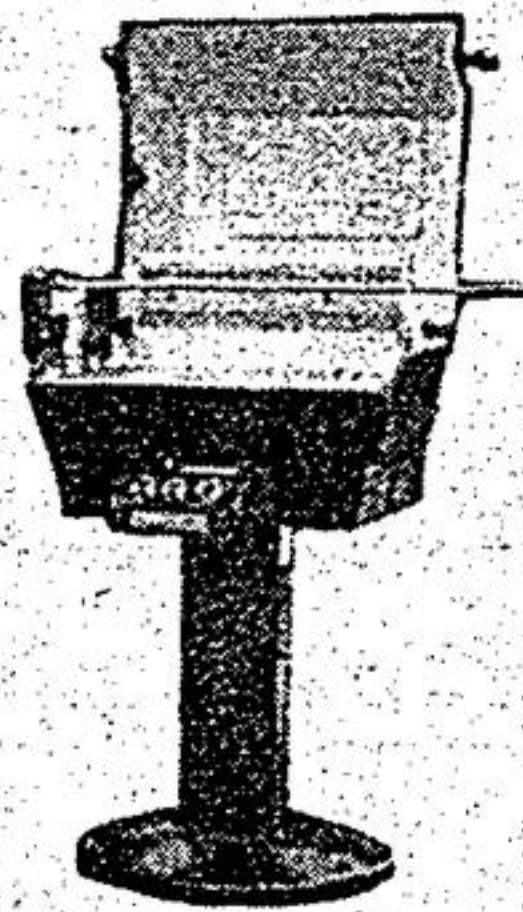

"A lot of people don't buy fish because they don't know how to prepare it," explained the 32-year-old Urben, who apprenticed in a specialty food store in her native Switzerland. "We try to advise them on how to cook it."

The daughter of a fisherman admits she's come by her profession honestly. "I grew up around fish, noted Ms. Urben, whose past experience includes a stint behind the deli counter at Uxbridge's Zehrs store."
