Shutout for Taylor

Jason Taylor earned the shutout as the Markham Marketing Electronics Bantams knocked off Unionville 1-0 in the Inter-Town challenge league.

Julius Aeuung notched the games's only tally on a first-half pass from Brian English. Strong defensive work came from David Debyl, Robert Woods, Shawn McCarthy and John Vekar.

Juniors victorious

The Ultramar Canada Juniors rebounded from a 1-0 deficit to hand Schomberg a 4-1 loss.

Some lineup changes seemed to make the difference, as Len Notaro started the comeback on a breakaway. Dave Green then booted his first hat trick of the season to complete the attack.

Harry Duckworth, Denny Terrigno and Paul Chan contributed strong efforts.

Hat trick for Crothers

Andrea Crothers' hat trick paced the Service Tire Atoms to a 5-0 triumph over Newmarket.

Crothers and Lucian Greco connected as the locals grabbed a 2-0 halftime edge. Crothers completed her hat trick and Missy Pfeil added a single in the second frame.

Allyson Shully and Laura Lee Kirwan shared the shutout honors. Markham sports a 5-0 record, scoring 23 goals and giving up just one.

Strong defensive performances came from Rosalind Virgin, Jacqueline Adams and Chandra Kipfer.

Atoms gain tie

The Markham Fruit Market Atoms gained their first point against a strong Woodbridge squad by battling to a scoreless draw.

Mosquitos win big

The Colangelo Bros. Mosquitos took advantage of a shorthanded Aandow York Glass team from Unionville to record an easy 7-1 win on Wednesday night.

The score was tied 1-1 at the half, but Unionville — with only nine players — ran out of gas in the second frame.

Jamie Antoine (with a hat trick), Scott Candlish, Dominic Colangelo and Reggie Golding had the Markham goals. Mariusz Shrestha replied for Unionville.

Unionville Mites lose

Malvern continues to be a sore spot for the Unionville Fruit Company softball Mites, handing them a 20-10 loss.

Most of the club's offence came from pitcher David Cox. He had two of Unionville's six hits, including a grand slam, scored twice and collected four RBIs.

Cox didn't help his case defensively, giving up 15 hits and three walks. David Gauthier had two hits and came home twice. Also scoring twice was Eric Goodwin.

Markham Bantams win pair

Markham's Mr. D International Bantams came up with two more baseball wins, gunning down Tottenham 13-10 and Newmarket 9-0.

Chris Lamarre led Markham's 10-hit attack against Tottenham with a single, double and a homer. Mark Redvers had two triples.

Jeff Stevenson became the squad's winningest pitcher when he tossed a two-hitter against Newmarket. Lamarre had two hits and four RBIs, while Ryan McIntyre, Tim Welker and Ron Papa also had two hits apiece.

Markham and Newmarket are now tied for second place in the York Simcoe Inter-County loop. If the locals can grab sole possession of second by season's end, they can move up from A-calibre ball to double-A.
