

New ownership

CATHY CARTER
STOUFFVILLE — The Garden Valley Fruit Market has opened its doors in Stouffville replacing Farmer Jack's Gardens on Highway 47.
 Owner Joe Battaglia said, "The store has been completely renovated. We've added a full line of groceries and expanded the fruits and vegetables section."
 The new market officially opened last Wednesday. It carries a full line of dairy and frozen food products. The deli section has been expanded and a wider variety is now available.

"We have very competitive prices," said Mr. Battaglia. "We are cheaper and fresher than chain stores in a lot of cases."
 Mr. Battaglia has another store in Markham at the corner of Raymerville and McCowar Road.
 Store hours are from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday to Wednesday; 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday and Friday; 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The store is open seven days a week including holidays.

Editor's Mail

Sets fine example

Dear Mr. Thomas:
 Your "Girl Next Door", (July 16), is an inspiration to young people everywhere.

While I've yet to meet Jackie (Hanley) personally, I hope some day to drop in, say hello and express thanks for the example she is for all ages.

You, as editor, will never know the joy your write-up brought to me. It's nice to hear about our young folk and the fine work they do.

Sincerely,
 Gladys Fleming,
 Elm Road,
 Stouffville

Rob Parcels Double-single for 8th order batsman

STOUFFVILLE — The bigger they are, the harder they fall. The Stouffville 'Legion' Bantams knocked off an over-sized and over-aged Vandorf Midget club 6-1 in a well-played contest Thursday night.
 Vandorf perform in a Bantam league for lack of competition in Midget class.
 The Slater Lumber squad out-hit Stouffville 6-5 over seven innings. Scott Evans went the distance on the hill for the homers. Dwayne Link and Mike Anderson shared the pitching chores for Vandorf.
 Rob Parcels, batting eighth in the Stouffville order, enjoyed a great game, belting a double and a single. Leftfielder Chris Winn poked out two hits, both singles. Catcher Jason Yashida slammed a triple.
 Vandorf's plate production was divided among six players. Jim Roberts, Steve Brash, Dave Dol, Tom Christiansen and Rich Derrach each had two-base blows. Anderson touched Evans for a single.
 Vandorf showed ability to 'place-hit' well. Several drives were Texas League loopers into short centrefield.
 Both teams pulled off several excellent defensive plays. Bright lights for Stouffville were Rich Burkholder and pitcher Scott Evans. Vandorf's Steve Nelson completed a fine running catch in the fourth on a drive by Jason Yashida. Steve Brash was equally brilliant in the 6th, hauling in a blast from the bat of Dave Watters.
 Stouffville's big innings came in the first and second. Two Vandorf errors allowed Chris Winn and Chris Burkholder to score in the 1st. Yashida's lead-off triple in the second followed by Rob Parcels' double and Winn's single added two more tallies. Rich Burkholder stole home in the 4th to make it 5-1 and Evans added an insurance run in the fifth.
 Vandorf threatened to narrow the gap in the 4th when Dol and Christiansen dropped doubles into short centre. Both players were left stranded, however, when Rich Burkholder completed a great catch on Derrach's drive and Jamie Vandyke went down on strikes.
 On July 24, (to-morrow), Stouffville will host Port Perry. Game time is 8:30 p.m.
